London, Sept. 4.—Public attention still centers in the dual alliance, though it has been interrupted by the shoutings of Emperor William of Germany. England remains apathetic, in spite of the fact that the center of tor remarks: "The closer we look into the details of the arrangements binding Europe, the clearer it becomes that no one of the various powers can move have arranged with seven ladies' bi-

The first step an ounced is the establishment of a Rus sian legation at Tangier, to support French views in Africa, and France feels, for the first time since 1871, that she is strong enough to have her own way.

RUSSIAN COURT MANNERS. President Faure is quite delighting Paris with the gossip of the Russian court. What astonished him most were the informal and entirely unaffected manners of the emperor and empress. The imperial couple, he explains, lived exactly like private people, in a small cottage with their children, dogs and the contents of Uncle Sam's treasure vaults, amounting to $767,782,216.
