DOMINION DAY GAMES.

Port Huron's ball tossers will be here for two games on Dominion Day, at Tecumseh Park, and Frisk, who has been doing good work for Detroit, will accompany them and pitch one game. He will no doubt prove a big drawing card. All the bleachers will be free, and only the regular 10 cents admission to the stands will be charged.

Flint, Mich., may take over the Grand Rapids franchise. The former is a good ball town, and would strengthen the league greatly if it comes in. If not, the fine team will play the schedule out, with off dates for exhibition games.

With Wedmore in the box for the Ivys, they were defeated on Tuesday night on their own grounds by the South London Juniors. London, June 27.—At Newcastle today the race for the Northumberland plate was won by J. C. Dyer's 3-year-old bay colt Joe Chamberlain, ridden by J. H. Martin. Innocence was second and Ameer was third. Eight horses ran.

THE WINDSOR RACES.

The Windsor Jockey Club has secured the services of two well-known horsemen, M. N. Macfarlan, of Memphis, and Hugh E. Keogh, of Chicago, to act as judges during the 30-day meeting that opens July 21 on the Canadian track. Mr. Macfarlan will act in the capacity of presiding judge, while Mr. Keogh will be his associate. Both men are widely known, and their presence in the Windsor stand is sure to add largely to the success of the meeting.

LACROSSE.

AWFUL SLAUGHTER.

If the spirit of old Chief Tecumseh happened yesterday afternoon to be hovering around the park which bears his name, he is doubtless by this time laid up an attack of appendicitis that will prevent him hovering again for some moons. How his spirit must have saddened to witness the degenerate days upon which has fallen the game that his dusky braves once played with such skill and abandon. London has seldom witnessed such a masterly exposition of the manner in which lacrosse should not be played as that provided by the lacrossists of the London club yesterday, in their match against the St. Mary's Alerts. The Londons apparently need plenty of good hard practice, their stick handling and running being decidedly yellow. If by any mishap one of them secured the rubber it either slid gently off his stick or was thrown with a wild, convulsive throw, and some waiting St. Marys player smiled gleefully, held out his stick and the ball dropped in. Or, if by an accident, a Londoner saw the ball coming his way, he straightway fell down before it, and allowed his opponent to step over his prostrate form and scoop the rubber.

There is already enough of sorrow and gloom in the world without adding to it by a recital of the harrowing details of yesterday's game. It is enough to say that at half-time the score was 5 to 0 in St. Marys' favor, that the same team had tallied 7 before London scored and that at the call of time the score stood 9—2. Fleming, of London twisted his knee and had to retire in the last half and Turnbull, of St. Marys, was ruled off in the same half for repeated fouling. The lineup was as follows:

St. Marys—Goal, McLean; point, Sweet; cover, Smith; defense field, Hutchings, Armstrong, Hawkshaw; center, Hocking; home field, Jefferson, Graham, Constable; outside, Turnbull; inside, Farr; captain, Peart.

London—Goal, Hefferman; point, Kelleher; cover, Carter; defense field, Vanderburg, Modeland, Smith; center, Galbraith; home field, Foley, Pollock, Stewart; outside, Fleming; inside, Jennings; captain, Collison.

Referee—W. Davidson, Mitchell.

FISTIC

New York, June 27.—A rumor was circulated throughout the country that Sharkey, the pugilist, who was defeater by Ruhlin at Coney Island last night, had died of his injuries. The report was investigated and found to be untrue.

CORBETT GOT EVEN.

Jim Corbett is playing ball in small eastern towns, and on Monday he played first base for Scranton, after which he gave a three-round sparring exhibition with Con. McVey. It was a little tame, and some of the people in the grand stand hissed. Corbett at once walked up to the grand stand excitedly and shook his fist in the direction of the hissers. "Those people hissing are not gentlemen," he declared in a loud voice. "What do you expect me to do, knock him out? I only agreed to give a good exhibition, and we don't give a prize fight for a 25-cent admission fee." The former champion's fierce demeanor cowed the hissers into silence, and he was applauded as he walked under the grand stand.

AQUATIC.

Poughkeepsie, June 27. — College coaches have as a rule refrained from detailing their respective crew events, and have contented themselves with hoping to win out without asserting so. Edward Hanlan, coach of the Columbia crew, broke the precedent today by boldly asserting that he stood ready to wager that the Columbia 'Varsity crew would win.

LAWN BOWLING.

A bowling match between the St. Thomas and London clubs took place on the court house lawn there on Tuesday, the visitors winning by several shots. In the evening another match took place, St. Thomas winning by 3 shots. The score:

The first annual contest, in which will compete about twelve bowling clubs of Western Ontario and Michigan, for the handsome silver trophy, so generously donated by S. J. Sutherland, will take place on Tecumseh Park green, Chatham, on Saturday, June 30. Secretary Fleming has written the following clubs to send two rinks: Walkerville, Delaware, Petrolia, Thamesville, Ridgetown, Blenheim, Pontiac, Detroit, Dresden, Sarnia, London, Windsor and St. Thomas. Drawings will be made Saturday morning.

BROKE BOTH JAWS.

Flint, Mich., June 28.—A six-foot grindstone burst at the Armstrong Steel Works yesterday, and one of the pieces struck Ed. Mimler in the face, breaking both of his jaws. His recovery is doubtful.

RAISED THE WALLNUT FOR HIS COFFIN.

Coldwater, Mich., June 28.—Richard Dorn, a Bronson pioneer, died at South Bend, and was brought to Bronson for burial. A singular incident was connected with his burial. When but a small boy he planted a black walnut and during the rest of his life up to three years ago he carefully watched its growth. In 1897 he had the tree cut and from it had a handsome casket made in which he was buried. The old man was not eccentric, unless this one feature of his life is so termed.

DON'T EXPERIMENT.

Diarrhoea and Dysentery Are Too Dangerous for You to Trifle With Untried Remedies.

Refuse Any of the Dangerous or Worthless Diarrhoea Compounds That May Be Offered You Instead of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for the past half century has had phenomenal success in curing Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, and all bowel complaints of young and old.

Both the medical profession and the people have given it their indorsation as the only reliable and safe remedy for these dangerous and distressing diseases.

There are some unscrupulous persons, though, who hope to profit by the merit and popularity of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. They put up a so-called "Strawberry Compound," and sometimes succeed in selling it to druggists and general merchants representing it as the genuine. Even the wrapper is yellow in color, like Dr. Fowler's, so as to deceive the very elect if they can.

If you want to be on the safe side, if you don't want to experiment or take chances as to results, refuse any and every diarrhoea mixture or compound that may be offered you, and insist on the old reliable and genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and every honest druggist and medicine dealer will give you what you ask for.
