SECOND READING OF THE IRISH BILL

mons by 443 to 26.

THE IRISH LEADERS SUPPORT IN

Healy Calls It a Measure of Peace and Says There Will Be No Repudiation.

London, May 8.-Adjourned debate London, May 8.—Adjourned debate of on the Irish land bill in the House of Commons was resumed yesterday after-

- Roon. Several unimportant speakers were followed by Timothy M. Healy (Nationalist), who commented on the "curious fact that the only two absolutely ignorant speeches against the bill came from the Liberal side of the House." Referring to the question whether the bill would make for home rule, Mr. Healy pointed out that the measure was supported by the Ulster members, who, he said, ought to know its effect better than "English amateur politicians, however respectable." Mr. Healy said he did not grudge the terms which the landlords were getting. He would not incite the tenants not to accept them, and ridiculed the idea of a campaign of repudiation. It was impossible with the present system of government. If he wanted to convict the Speaker of the House of murder he would have no difficulty in so doing with the Irish Government machinery in his hands. Continuing, Mr. Healy said he regarded the bill as being a Ask to measure of peace, which he hoped will infuse a new spirit into the hearts of Ireland and England. T. P. O'Connor, while criticising its details, denfended the bill. The House must now "choose between a great measure of land purchase and chaos and anarchy."

The Irish land bill passed its second reading in the House of Commons by 443 votes to 26.

THE JEWISH MASSACRES

One Hundred Were Killed and Thousands Wounded.

New York, May 8.-In a statement given out, the central committee for the relief of the Kishineff sufferers says in part: "The full story of the terrible massacre, which occurred in Kishineff, the capital of Besharabia, on April 20 to April 23, is now coming to hand in the shape of telegrams and letters from the scene of the outrages. No exact figures are to be had, but so much is certain that at least 100 Jewish Men, women and children and some non-Jews who defended them were butchered, and that over 1,000 people were wounded. An expressive telegram states that "vanloads of cripples were sent to Odessa, the nearest city, while many went mad owing to the terror which prevailed in Kishineff.
