THREE "NO-DECISION" SCRAPS AT WINDSOR A. C.

Wilson and Hefron Fought Eight-Round Draw - Hudson Had Shade on Droullard and Peon Took Count.

Detroit featherweight, and Marty Hef-ten, of Goldfield, Nev., went eight rounds o a draw at the Windsor A. C. last aight. The bout was full of action and pirited, with both men willing to trade wallops at every opportunity. There was only one knockdown in the contest. That came in the second, when Hefron's jaw came in contact with a stiff right and he was sent to the floor near the edge of the ring.
Pap Droullard and Tommy Hudson fought to a draw in one of the toughest six-round contests that has been wit-nessed in the Windsor arena in some
