COUNTRY ROADS BAD AND MARKET POOR

Farmers Find It Impossible to Get to the City With Produce.

There was practically nothing offered in the local market this morning, as country roads are still badly drifted, and it is practically impossible to travel with heavy loads in some places.

As a result the markets for the past week have been very small, and seem likely to continue so for some time to come.

There was no hay or grain of any sort offered this morning, and the market was practically deserted.

Such few lots as were offered sold for around $5.50.
