Sent to cover Mrs. Montague Bulger's ball, Fanny Stone, a society reporter on the Eagle, is treated very shabbily. Fanny meets Bert Bailey, who has just started a new paper, called "The Era." She tells him of the treatment she has received, and they plan revenge. They catch Mrs. Bulger in the conservatory, spooning with a long-haired poet, and they take a snapshot of them, which interesting picture, Fanny publishes in the Eagle, with her account of the ball. Mrs. Bulger is furious at the sensation caused and demands Fanny's dismissal. Fanny is discharged.

MAURICE COSTELLO, who appears in "Her Big Scoop" as Bert Bailey, owner of "The Era."

and while lying on her bed that night, lying, she overhears two men who occupy the room next to her, planning a bank robbery. She "scoops" them, and assured a big "scoop," offers to sell it to several of the big newspapers, but they are skeptical, and finally she takes it to Bert. He is delighted when Fanny puts her proposition to him, and agrees to take her "scoop." He offers her a share of the profits and a position on the paper, provided the "scoop" turns out well. Hidden in Fanny's room, Bert and Fanny overhear one of the robbers' plans and find out that the caretaker of the bank has been bribed to help them. Bert then goes to his friend, Detective Kelly, and puts the story before him. They tell Mr. Jamieson, the manager of the bank, and on the night when the robbery is to take place, Kelly, Bert and Fanny are all put in the strong room—so as to be in at the death, as Bert puts it. The robbers are admitted by the caretaker and are captured after a struggle in which Fanny saves Bert's life. Next morning, the New Era is out with Fanny's telling of the capture of the robbers, the circulation troubles in a single day. The Editors of the Guardian and the Eagle, the two large newspapers, find out too late what a mistake they made. Jamieson is so delighted with what Fanny and Bert have done, he

YOU NEED MEDICINE AT THIS TIME

Everybody is more or less troubled, at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious turns, dull headaches, indigestion, and other stomach troubles, or with pimples and other eruptions on the face and body. The reason is that the blood is impure and impoverished. Hood's sarsaparilla relieves all these ailments. Ask your druggist for this medicine and get it today. Nothing else acts like it. Get Hood's.

Capt. Cummings Performed a Feat Thought Impossible

Released the Waldo and is Now At Work On the Turret Chief.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SARNIA, May 8.—By releasing the steamer Waldo from the rocks at Manitou Island, a feat thought impossible by marine men, Capt. Alex. Cummings, of Port Huron, in command of the tug Favorite, has stepped into the hall of fame among marine wreckers. He is now at work on the steamer Turret Chief on the rocks at Copper Harbor, and has also just received orders to salvage the steamer George Baker, which went on the rocks at Sawtooth Reef, Lake Superior, on Tuesday night.

LONDON PASTOR MAY TAKE PETROLEA CHURCH

GALT LAD DROWNED SLIPPED OFF DAM

Fell Into Water Twenty Feet Deep While At Play.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GALT, May 8.—Harold Brown, aged 7 years, was drowned this afternoon, when while playing near the retaining wall of the dam he lost his balance and fell into water 20 feet deep.

The fire bell sounded an alarm, and men with hooks found the body after 20 minutes. Life was extinct. If diving had been resorted to the doctors say the lad's life might have been saved. Dr. Radford, coroner, is making inquiries before ordering an inquest. The Brown family arrived from Devonshire, England, a month ago.

ENGINE WAS WRECKED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

BLTH, May 8.—A bad accident happened at the saw mill today. By some mischance, something went wrong with the engine, and before any of the men could get to it the cylinder was broken all to pieces, and it is likely the Mr. Vanstone will have to put in a new engine. The whole thing seems to be a mystery, but the most likely solution is that the cylinder was not firm on the bed.

Advance Furniture Event for Your Summer Home-Bungalow Summer Hotels and Boarding Houses.

The Display of Summer Furniture Is Distinctly Different This Year

Not only because we began preparations months earlier than usual, but because in no former opening have we had an assortment so extensive, or such variety of designs and color effects, or so many new, artistic and decorative ideas, developed with a skill of handicraft that excites admiration. Besides, apart from the beautiful designs and excellent qualities we have never had better values.

A porch is fitted up on east side of Furnished House, on Third Floor, for this display, decorated with foliage and shown to give the inspiration of outdoor life. The majority of furniture shown is suitable also for the den or living-room.
