As will be remembered, Mr. tion is serious. His Holiness rose this Monteith was elected by a majority of five over Mr. Moscrip at the general election, just a year ago, but on a scrutiny of the ballots was deprived of the seat, the judge throwing out a number of ballots marked for him because they were improperly printed. Mr. Moscrip was thereupon declared elected, and sat in the House during the brief session of last summer. A protest having been entered, Mr. Moscrip resigned the seat, and declined a second nomination. Much sympathy was expressed upon all sides for Mr. Monteith, many respectable Liberals, even, admitting he had not been fairly treated, so that to-day's result is not to be wondered at. Detailed returns are not obtainable with costs. In the first-Sims vs. Kingston-the plaintiff appealed from the order of Judge Ferguson, refusing to strike out paragraphs 3, 4 and 5 in statement of defence in the action brought to re-strain the City Clerk from acting upon the result of the polling at the municipal elections last January. The other was Sims vs. city of Lonlon, in which plaintiff appealed from Judge Ferguson's order refusing to set aside ex parte order permitting defendants, Messrs. Little and Jones, to enter a conditional appearance. Defendants disputed the jurisdiction of the court, contending the proceedings should have been taken under the provisions of the Municipal Act relating to controverted elections. In the case of Buchanan vs. Ingersoll water-works, heard before C. J. Armour, in the same court, the defendant's appeal was allowed plaintiff entitled by prescription to the flow of water through their land, and restrained defendants from diverting
