BROKER AND TURFMAN

E.W. GILLETT COMPANY

TORONTO, ONT.

New Yorker Arrested for Larceny 400 Shares of Stock.

New York, April 28.-Alfred M Lamar, the stock broker and turfman who failed for a large sum in November, 1904, was arrested yesterday by Detective-Sergeant McConville on a charge of larceny. The warrant was issued months ago, but all efforts to serve it failed as the broker could not be found. Lamar was found yesterday in a house in west 60th street, where he formerly lived with his mother.

The specific charge against Laman is the larceny of 400 shares of American Malting Company stock, which Mrs. Isabelle Von Rounds, New Rochelle, declares she gave him to sell for her.. The value of the stock is put at $4.800.
