Bow She Told It.

He held my hand—
I knew 'twas wrong,
And still I did not chide him;
He clasped my waist—
He is so strong,
And I so weak beside him! He bent his face Down close to mine-

His brown eyes were so pleading!
And maybe, too,
He saw in mine—
But eyes are so misleading! His moustache brushed
My reddening cheek—
Oh, dear! how it did tickle!
I had to smile—
I couldn't speak—
I wonder if he's fickle!

He kissed me? Well, If you must know,
I'm sure I don't deny it?
And I kissed him?
Well, maybe so—
His actions would imply it,

My foolish heart
Was throbbing so
'That I could not prevent it,
He said he loved me—
I don't know—
I wonder if he meant it!
