"The authors of the Boston papers have succeeded in presenting a wonderfully interesting account in which none of the more important events have been omitted. The quaint Cape Cod towns that have clung tenaciously to their old-fashioned ways are described with a characteristic vividness by Miss Bates. The other papers are presented in a delightfully attractive manner that will serve to make more deeply cherished the memory of the places described."—New York Times.

Some Colonial Homesteads

And Their Stories. By MARION HARLAND. Second impression. With 86 illustrations. 8°, gilt top, $3.00.

"A notable book, dealing with early American days. . . . The name of the author is a guarantee not only of the greatest possible accuracy as to facts, but of attractive treatment of themes absorbingly interesting in themselves. . . . the book is of rare elegance in paper, typography, and binding."—Rochester Democrat-Chronicle.

Where Ghosts Walk

The Haunts of Familiar Characters in History and Literature. By MARION HARLAND, author of "Some Colonial Homesteads," etc. With 33 illustrations. 8°, gilt top, $2.50.

"In this volume fascinating pictures are thrown upon the screen so rapidly that we have not time to have done with our admiration for one before the next one is encountered. . . . Long-forgotten heroes live once more; we recall the honored dead to life again, and the imagination runs riot. Travel of this kind does not weary. It fascinates."—New York Times.
