ITEMS or NEWS—The Provincial Government have appointed Mr. Holwell to superintend the exhibition of Canadian industry and arts at the New York Fatt.

Grast extitement prevails in the the New England States about the shaneful loss of life on the New York and New Haven Rultroad. 54 lives have so for been found to have been lost, the bodies being dreadfully mangled. Negligence of the most criminal kind has been shown in the keepers of the bridge, and also in the rillroad conductors. It is proposed to make railroads pay £10,000 for every line lost by the negligence of railroads.
