To come out of the man.
6. Did it obey?
Yes. For Jesus has all power.
7. Who did he cure next?
Peter's wife's mother.
8. Who came to him at evening?
A crowd of people who needed help.
9. What did Jesus do?
He helped them all.

A QUEER LITTLE FELLOW.

A queer little fellow indeed was Tommy Dick. Why, he would give away the last marble he had if a boy wanted it. He would run on errands all day long, and never grumble. He would always give the best place to somebody else, no matter who, and feel so honestly glad in seeing other folks have a good time that he really forgot all about himself.

Don't you see he was a very queer little fellow?

But somehow, everybody liked to have the "queer little fellow" around. Grandma always smiled all over her face when she saw Tommy coming. Aunt Lois, who was a very busy woman, used to say, "Well, now you've come just in time, Tommy. Run and—"

When Tommy went to spend the day with grandma or Aunt Lois the folks at home all missed him. One would say, "Where's Tommy? I wish he would come home." And another, "Now, if Tommy were only here!"

You see Tommy was one of the unselfish helpers; and what a tiresome world this would be if there were not a good sprinkling of such people!

Are there any Tommies at your house? It wouldn't do any harm if there were more than one, you know. Indeed half a dozen boys and girls with the spirit of Tommy Dick would make home a very pleasant place.

Don't you think so?
