Slavery abolifhed. - A despatch dated San Francisco, April 1, says that the King of Corea issued an edict on February 5th abolishing slavery. It is estimated that over half of the inhalitants of Corea are slaves.

Termble disclosures of systematic bribery have beeu made in connection with the PanElectric Telephone case and the Broadway Railway, N. Y. If the neck of such bribery be not lroken, it will yet break the neck of Republi. mon America.

The Pore has appointed Archbishop Taschereat of Quebec to be Cardinal for the Catholics of Canada. No doubt they will be proud of this, the first title of the kind ever goven in Canala.

In Merico the dark places are full of horrid cruelty. There a rich Jew, Isadure Black, was assassinated a month ago and his house robbed of $$ 13,000$. Two Mexicaus, Juan Anguera, a gambler, and ldel Gonzales, a once noted bullfighter, were arrested and made a confession which implicates a dozen other persons, and diseloses the existence of a secret society whose nembers are all murderers and robbers banded together for mutual protection and for the purposes of plunder. The organizers of the band are two Americaus, Saml. Williams and Saml. Keid, deserters from the United States Army. They were apprehended and are now in gaol.
siarcely less to be deplored are other furms of cruelty often perpetrated in more highly civilized communitirs. A wealthy gentleman of Providence, Rhode Island, having a taste for rural pursuits, some years ago established a stock-farm in the town of Seekonk, to which he was continually adding until about a month ago he possessed one of the best and largest herds of Jerseys and Ayrshires in New ingland, with many valuable horses, etc. One night receatly this magnificent collection, with the entire premises, was swept out of existence in a couple of hours by the torch of the incendiary. Loss from $$ 75,000$ to $$ 100,000$.

In Canada the Conservative Government has been sustained on the Riel execution, by the enormous majority of 94 , including 24 Liberals. Mr. Blake strangely chose to vote on the side of the Rielites. The vote stood 146 to 52. Mr. Blake rarried a few of the weaker brethren with him; but the solid men,- the Cartwrights, the Mackenzies, the Pattersons, voted with the Government. In striking contrast with the policy of Mr. Blake was that of the French-Canaditia members of the Government. If ever men could have heen pardoned for yielding to clamor, they might have been. But they did not yield. They saw the main point: that this country could not be governed or legislated for on sectional lines, and that its authority within its own borders must at all costs be upheld, no matter by whom set at naught. They belong no longer to the Province of Quebec alone, but to the Dominion in its length and breadth. They have strengthened the Government in the preformance of a grave duty, and have done more perhaps than 11 was ever given to three ministers to do before to break down barriers of race in the population of Canada. Should Canada attain some day to a true unity of national sentiment, it will, beyond doubt, be largely due to the courage and statesmanship, under ruost critical circumstances, of Messrs. Laugevin, Chapleau and Carou. There is much in our politics that is cäcessively disheartening; but here at least is something on which any unprejudiced citizen cau dwell with satisfaction.
