The Soralists Vare Mecor A manual prayer book and hymnal compiled for sodaints of the Breed Virgin Mary. By a price of the Breed Virgin War Vork. Benziger Bros. Cloth. 50c; lambskur $1.00.

The particular matter ombraced in the contents of this beautifully bound book to which attention need be called includes: An account of the origin of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin, the spiritual advantages derived from mombership in a sodality, the indulgences granted by the Popes, common and special rules and constitutions of sodalities, a collection of special prayers and the complete and admirable sodality lymnal Considering the value of thesa the book is indeed, accurately described as the Sodalists Vado Mecum. The larger and type used are superior and we have soldem seen a finer binding price.

we have soldem seen a finer binding than the edition before us at the higher price.

The Leaver Hannal. A collection of Sacred Heart Hymns, embracing all the hymns of the 'League Developman arranged to suitable unce, original selected. By Rev. Williams, embracing all selected. By Rev. Williams, em. 27 and selected. By Rev. Work. $1.00.

We do not recommend the 'League Hymnal' lightly one untertain strong convictions concerning church musae are not to be concerning church musae are not to be selected by treated. They are a numerous and outspoken class, and they greanes and outspoken class, and they greanes are in any way in cased. Fully appreciating the severity of their criticisms in regard to all phases of this which they rightly regard as a burning question, we confidently recommend to them a study of the words and nusic of all these "Sacred Heart' hymns. The editor evidently brought to his task a sound musical judgment and a firm intention of conserving the reversed due to God in His house. He is himself the composer of no fewer than sixteen of the tunes, all of which come up to a high standard both of musical and sacred requirements Then, there are such composers as Gound. Six Joseph Baraby and Join Sterer in the selection of whose work the best popular taste seems to have been intelligently consulted. Added to the hymns is a choral service for the public exercises of the League; music by Rev. F. M. de witing and binding are in superior style.

complete consider the sease anial. New York; Benziger Bro. 60c.

No publication could be more desirable in the popular sense at this time when his brethren are undertaking the erection of a shrine to his memory, than a manual of the great medieval saint, Fernando de Bouillon, of Padua, a Gescondant of the great Godfrey de Bouillon of the First Crusade. Veneration to St. Anthony increases overy day in the Catholic world, and although it is coming on eight hundred years since the living force of the "Hammer of Hereits" was fell in the Christian world his influence is as much a reality to tens of thousands to-day as if the saint were still in the fiesh. In the present book we have an account of St. Anthony's life, of the origin of the devetion of the nine Tuesdays in his hour, the prayer therefor, various devotions to the saint, the origin of the charity known as "St. Anthony's Bread;" and for the rest the book is filled up with the necessary contents of an ordinary prayer book, to the processor of the charity known as "St. Anthony's Bread;" and for the rest the book is filled up with the necessary contents of an ordinary prayer book, to the binding is particularly strong and there are many interesting illustrations.

MAGAZINES.

The Cathelle World.

Lightness and diversity are the characteristics of the July number of The Cathelic World Magazine. Father Watter Elliots leads off with a cheery paper on our duty toward "Hall-Converts." An interesting biographical sketch of "The Daughter of Madame Roland," detailing some curious mental struggles and their results, is given by A. E. Buchanan. A paper on "A Chinese flody Island," with Illustrations, by T. H. Houston, roveals a curious phase of the cryptic life of the Flowery Kingdom. Professor James H. Gore, of the Columbian University, contributes a valuable social paper entitled "The Miners of Mariemout, Belgium." Drothy Gresham furnishes a breezy bit of fiction entitled "The Delinquent."

A valuable social paper entitled. "The Miners of Mariemout, Belgitum." Dorothy Gresham furnishes a broexy bit of fiction entitled. "The Delinquent."

The Ladies' Home Journal for July—an artistically attractive and interesting issue opens with a sumptuously illustrated article on Joan of Are and her home, by Emma Asbraud Hopkins, who entertainingly writes of the childhood and religious life of the Maid. Apropos of the approaching centenary of Burns Arthur Warren presents. "The Other Side of Robert Burns," revealing the better side of the poet. Hezokiah Butterworth tells, in his engaging way, a Brook Farm story, "The Wife of Ben Bow," and Alice Wellington Rollins humorously romanees of "A Town Biepele." A trie of poems of the field, framed in a drawing by W. Hamilton (fibson, and a musical composition—"The Lyndon Polka"—by Mrs. Frances J. Moore, are page features. Edward W. 1 & writes editorially of the girl between sixteen and twenty, and enters a plea for people who go to the country in the summer time to live as near to Nature as possible.

The Atlant. Monthly, which begins a new volume with the July number, securely holds its own place as the foromost of our periodicals in its literary quality, and it shows also a firm and ready grasp on the important topies of the time. Hone. E. J. Phelps, ex. Minister to England, discusses Arbitration and our Relations to England, slowing what arbitration may do and what it cannot do, and what diplomacy ought to accomplish, and the best methods of advancing international amity and the progress of mankind. In an article that goes much further with one branch of his agrees that the key to the Angle-Saxon future which is the key to the Angle-Saxon future which is the key to the North of the same subject, Prof. George B. So rapidly does a solucity.

So rapidly does a lung irritation spread and deepen, that often in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tuberculer consumption. Give head to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bettle of Bickle's Auti-Consumptive Syzap, and cure yourself. It is ruedenous unsurpassed for mathroat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and all lung diseases.
