

to, partly on their account. Among the other workers have been: Misses Pinkham, Clarke, Kerr, Breunan, Gibson, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Wheeler, Miss MacCowan, the Misses Harris, the Misses Kennedy, Miss Marsh, Miss McCulloch, Miss Bowden, Miss Marshall, the Misses Choate, Messrs. Grogan, MacKenzie, Tooker, Helliwell, S. Hodson, R. Hodson, and others.

INNISFAIL The Christmas services at St. Mark's were well attended, but it is nevertheless a sad fact that quite a number of church people both in town and in the near neighborhood were absent from their parish church at this great festival. The offertories, though good, have not quite erased all arrears of stipend, but there are several subscriptions still due. From now till Easter will be a trying time financially and the people of the parish are asked to be as liberal as possible in their offerings.

The painting of the chancel, although not completed, gave an unaccustomed brightness to the church this Christmas, and when all the decorations are finished it is hoped that the appearance of the choir and sanctuary will be conducive to greater reverence and devotion.

The ladies of St. Mark's have organized a Guild, with an annual membership fee of 25 cents. Ladies everywhere throughout the Mission are eligible for membership. The meetings will be monthly, on the first Thursday in each month, at 2 p. m., at St. Mark's Parsonage. The object before the Ladies' Guild for the coming year is the payment of the stipend due to the late Incumbent, Rev. L. J. H. Wooden.
