

PARAGRAPHIC.A GOOD CORN SHELLER FOR 25 CENTS.

A marvel of cheapness, of efficacy and of promptitude, is contained in a bottle of that famous remedy, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. It goes right to the root of the trouble, there acts quickly but so painlessly that nothing is known of its operation until the corn is shelled. Beware of substitutes offered for Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—safe, sure and painless. Sold at druggists.

At the instance of the Boston Board of Aldermen the Massachusetts Legislature has passed a bill restricting the height of buildings to 125 feet. The bill applies to buildings which have already been begun.

$50 A YEAR SAVED.—A wealthy farmer writes us: 'Since my family have become acquainted with your valuable Minard's Liniment, Pills and Honey Balsam, we use them; they will cure every disease they are recommended to, and we have kept the Doctor out of the house, which has saved us about $50 a year.'

Wife—'Did you change the dress pattern and blow the man up for the mistake?' Husband—'I had it changed, but the clerk declared that he knew you were wrong.' Wife—'Well, what did you do about it?' Husband [grimly]—'I shook hands with him.'

LIONS ABOUT.—It is a dangerous thing to trifle with a cold. A dour preacher once told his hearers that 'he thanked God that the devil went about as a roaring lion, seeking whom he might devour. He might catch a poor fellow who didn't know that he was near him, but when he heard the roar he could get out of the way, if he didn't he deserved to die.' So when one hears the wheeze or cough which tells of the old lion of consumption lurking around, he should fly and get Minard's Liniment and use it freely on the chest, and take Minard's Honey Balsam internally, and get out of the way of danger. These preparations are well known, having been tried for 30 years and are acknowledged by all who use them to be unsurpassed in their soothing and healing properties at all times.

'Don't you think you dress more loudly than is consistent with your circumstances?' said the influential church member to the Deacon. 'I don't see how that can be,' was the indignantly spoken answer. 'My hat is black; my coat is black, my cravat is black—' 'I know it, brother; but you wear squeaky shoes.'—Post.

Don't forget, if you are a tall woman, to have your work table and ironing board a few inches higher than they are usually made. This little precaution will prevent many a backache.

THE TEACHEPS' ASSISTANT

To Explain and Illustrate the Canadian Church Sunday School Lessons, adopted by our Provincial Synod of Canada,
Oct. 8th, 1890.

Price only 30 cents per annum.

Brimful of interesting matter every Sunday's Lesson.
No Sunday-school Teacher who tries it will be without it.

The Bishop of Toronto thus writes respecting the Assistant:

"I strongly commend it to the notice of the Clergy of the Diocese, hoping that they will promote its circulation among their Teachers."

The Bishop of Algoma says:

"The Assistant" is certain to prove a valuable aid to conscientious Sunday School Teachers. Designed (as its name implies) to stimulate but not to supersede careful preliminary study of the lesson, it opens up new lines of thought, which cannot fail to give solidity to the instruction conveyed in the Sunday School that use it."

The Bishop of Niagara says:

"The Teachers' Assistant" will be valued by all who feel the need of their own minds being stimulated and informed before going to the class in the Sunday-school.
