

Y.M.C.A. Notes

On Wednesday, November 22, a missionary meeting was held in the Y. M.C.A. building. Various phases of the foreign work were taken up. Hinduism and its evils was discussed in two essays by Messrs. Whetlam and Silcox.

Dr. Sailor, the Foreign Secretary of the International Committee, is visiting Toronto this week. He will hold a conference of Bible study and Mission study leaders on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 2 and 3. The meeting on Saturday will commence at 2.30.

On Sunday, Dec. 10, the Rev. Dr. Potts, of Toronto, will preach the University sermon.

Wycliffe College

The strange and unaccountable shyness of our two erstwhile Oliver Twists, R.J.W.P. and R.B.G., seems to be hourly increasing. They cannot even work up the necessary daring to ask for a second helping of pie, except by proxy.

On Tuesday of last week a large contingent of Wycliffites marched in a body to Trinity College to hear Mr. J. R. Mott's address on missions.

Messrs. H. I. Haslam and C. I. Bilkey represented Wycliffe at the "At Home" given by the Women's Medical College. They report no ill effects from the light refreshments provided.

At the regular business meeting of the Lit. held last Friday, Messrs. G. A. Andrew, B.A., and H. A. Ben Oliei were appointed to represent the College at the Victoria and Dental "At Homes" respectively.

"Wilf" reports a "liberal" crop in North York. This, it must be noted, is a "conservative" estimate.

There was ye young man yeleft Wag-ner
Whose bosom boiled o'er with hot anger.

Quoth he, "Did I know
Who stole my chapeau
I swear that the villain would hang, sir!"

Last Tuesday evening the monthly High Tea was given in the college refectory. Rev. J. Macdonald, editor of the Globe, was the speaker of the evening, and delivered an exceedingly interesting address.

Mr. T. Harold Perry was out again last evening. Mr. R. B. McElheran was not at home. Contributions for the Fresh Air Fund may be sent to the College scribe.
