A GREAT STORY JUST STARTED

The Man and the Dragon by Alexander Otis. A stirring tale of a spirited fight made by a brilliant young journalist against monopoly and political corruption. Of equal interest to men and women.

Subscriptions received by the middle of December will be assured back numbers containing the early chapters.

☛ Samples to out-of-town addresses sent free on application by post card, also premium offers. ☛

THE DOCTOR

by Sir Luke Fildes

One of the best known of modern pictures, and perhaps the most human ever painted.

LONDON BRIDGE

by Fred Morgan

A charming picture of child
life and the most popular game
of childhood days.

LAST CHANGE

by Heywood Hardy

A stirring picture of the good old coaching days in England.

THE HORSE FAIR

by Rosa Bonheur, the queen of animal painters. A universal favorite.

These pictures have been habitually sold in the Art Stores of Montreal and New York at Two dollars and a half each.

THEY ARE REAL ART TREASURES.
