

- (d) Should the German authorities raise objections to a plan endeavours shall be made without delay by way of joint discussion to reach agreement taking due account both of German interests and of military requirements.
- (e) Should the German authorities and the authorities of the force, either at local or at regional level, fail to reach agreement upon a plan within an appropriate period of time, the matter shall, at the request of the German authorities or the authorities of the force, be further discussed by the Federal Government and the Government of the sending State in order to reach agreement.
- (f) Should the Federal Government and the Government of the sending State fail to reach agreement on a plan within an appropriate period of time, each Government may refer the matter to the Secretary-General of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization with a request for his expert opinion as to whether the planned manoeuvre or other training exercise is of primary importance to the accomplishment of the defence mission of the force and in conformity with the directives laid down within the framework of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Such expert opinion shall be given due consideration in the course of further negotiations between the Governments.
- (g) The force shall conduct the manoeuvre or other training exercise in accordance with the agreement reached on the plan.
6. (a) After agreement has been reached on a plan, the authorities of the force shall inform the German authorities of their intention to conduct the manoeuvre or other training exercise in sufficient time to enable the German authorities to announce the manoeuvre or other training exercise at least two weeks prior to its commencement.
- (b) If for important reasons not foreseen during the discussion of the plan the German authorities raise objections to the conduct of the manoeuvre or other training exercise in a specific area or at a specific time, especially on the grounds that the manoeuvre or other training exercise would endanger public safety and order or public health, or would as a result of weather conditions cause considerable damage, endeavours shall be made, without delay by way of joint discussion to reach agreement, taking due account of these reasons.
- (c) The local German authorities shall establish restrictive conditions, which under German law they may establish in individual cases (paragraph 1 of Section 66 of the Federal Requisitioning Law) only in agreement with the authorities of a force to the extent that the force is affected thereby.
7. For the purpose of effective co-ordination of civilian and military interests in the application of this Article, the Federal Government and the Government of a sending State may by agreement establish a Permanent Committee.
