

the Convention. Another view was that non-parties should not be sanctioned for non-compliance with obligations they have not undertaken. The question of rights and duties of third parties with regard to the Convention has yet to be discussed in detail.

- It was argued that should the Organization fail to impose sanctions collectively, the Convention would suffer great damage.
- The discussion of the question of sanctions has clearly shown the highly delicate political nature of the problem, which needs to be further addressed in order to clarify more the issues involved and try to find appropriate solutions to them.
