

2. In the case of a request for extradition presented by Canada, the competent Dutch authorities shall conduct the extradition proceedings in accordance with Dutch law, without further representation of Canada.

Article 21 - Entry into Force

1. This Treaty shall enter into force on the first day of the second month following the date on which the Contracting States shall have notified each other that their legal requirements have been complied with.

2. On its entry into force this Treaty shall, as between Canada and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, terminate and replace the Treaty between Great Britain and the Netherlands for the Mutual Surrender of Fugitive Criminals, signed at London, September 26, 1898. However, any request for extradition presented prior to the entry into force of this Treaty shall still be governed by the provisions of the Treaty of 1898.

3. This Treaty shall apply to any request presented after its entry into force, even if the offence for which extradition is requested was committed before that date.

4. If the notification from the Kingdom of the Netherlands under paragraph 1 does not provide for application of this Treaty to the Kingdom as a whole, the Treaty of 1898 will remain in force between Canada and the Kingdom of the Netherlands in respect of that part of the Kingdom of the Netherlands specified in the notification.

Article 22 - Termination

1. Either Contracting State may terminate this Treaty at any time by written notification to the other State. The termination shall be effective one year after the date of receipt of such notice.

2. Termination of this Treaty by the Kingdom of the Netherlands may be limited to one of its constituent parts.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the representatives of the two Governments, being authorized for this purpose, have signed this Treaty.
