VISIT OF NATO SECRETARY GENERAL DR. MANFRED WÖRNER

MAY 1-2, 1989

The Right Honourable Joe Clark, Secretary of State for External Affairs, announced today that Dr. Manfred Wörner, Secretary General of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), will be making his first official visit to Canada on May 1-2, 1989.

Dr. Wörner's visit this year coincides with NATO's 40th anniversary. Dr. Wörner will meet the Governor General, the Prime Minister, the Secretary of State for External Affairs, the Minister of National Defence and the leaders of the Opposition parties. He will also meet with members of the Standing Committees for External Affairs and International Trade, and for National Defence and Veteran's Affairs, as well as with the Canadian Institute for International Peace and Security.

Figuring prominently in Dr. Wörner's talks with the Prime Minister and the host Ministers will be the preparations for the upcoming NATO Summit and the ways in which the Alliance will meet the challenges of the nineties.
