

The Knights of Columbus Canadian Army Huts or The Salvation Army Canadian War Services, as defined in the Order in Council dated the 8th of March, 1944 (P.C. 44/1555),* shall be deemed to be a War Service elector and qualified to vote under these Regulations, provided that such person ordinarily resided in Canada prior to the assumption of such duties.

Member of Reserve Army, etc.

(3) Every person who is a British subject of the full age of twenty-one years and is a member of a Reserve unit or formation of the Canadian Army, and is absent from his ordinary place of residence while undergoing training at a duly authorized training camp or school established for full time courses, including any person who, being a member of a Reserve unit or formation of the Canadian Army, has been called up on service by the Minister of National Defence, but only with respect to the period during which such person is in receipt of compensation in consequence of his having been so called up, and including further any person who is a member of the University Air Training Corps or the Air Cadet Corps present in the course of duty at a Royal Canadian Air Force unit, shall be deemed to be a War Service elector and entitled to vote under these Regulations, provided such person ordinarily resided in Canada prior to his enlistment.

Residence requirements

(4) In order to be entitled to vote under these Regulations, a War Service elector must specify, in the declaration in Form No. 8, the city, town or village, with street address, if any, or other place, in Canada, wherein he or she was ordinarily residing prior to his or her appointment, enlistment, enrolment or calling up on War Service, and his or her vote shall be applied only in the electoral district in which such place of ordinary residence is situated.

Disqualification for want of residence

(5) A War Service elector who cannot specify a city, town or village, with street address, if any, or other place, in Canada, wherein he or she was ordinarily residing prior to his or her appointment, enlistment, enrolment or calling up on War Service, shall not be qualified to vote under these Regulations.

SPECIAL RETURNING OFFICERS AND THEIR STAFFS

Appointment by Governor in Council

6. For the purpose of these Regulations the Governor in Council shall, with respect to a general election, appoint the necessary number of special returning officers to superintend the taking, receiving, sorting and counting of the votes of War Service electors in the following voting territories:—
