have cemented that friendship.

To say that I enjoyed being with you is to put into few words what is to me a very deep feeling.

And so I look forward keenly to the prospect that Lady Currie and you will not miss out Scotland when you come to this side and that the Marine Hotel will know you no more.
There is only one possible roof for you in St. Andrews and that is mine.

To turn for a moment to business, your cable awaited my return here and I at once collected information regarding Mr Thomson, whom
