

CHAPTER XXI.

Black bears—Easily tamed—Bears fishing—A tame bear rocking a baby's hammock—An adventure with one—Shooting it in the river—Marvelous cleverness of the Indians—Dinner of bear's ribs—Supper of bear's paws—Story of Mis-mis the old Indian—Condemned to die—Aided by the boys, captured a grizzly bear—Because of his bravery the sentence of his death was revoked—Lived to become a Christian.....Page 251

CHAPTER XXII.

The moose-deer—Valuable to the Indians—Methods of capture—Big Tom's camp-fire story—His method of hunting them—The reindeer—Migratory habits—Fond of swimming—Easily killed in the lakes—Women hunters—A tragic story—Three lives lost by the reindeer smushing the canoe—Wanted, a Christian wife—Successful in the undertaking—A short courtship, with happy results..... 263

CHAPTER XXIII.

The model missionary superintendent, Rev. George Young, D.D.—Beginning the work in Manitoba under hardships and difficulties—His genuine sympathy with the isolated missionaries—His twelve-hundred-mile trip by dog-train—Narrow escape from a crack in the ice—Varied traveling experiences—The camp in the snow—The missions visited—Norway House—Oxford House—Missionary discomforts—Nelson River mission—Rev. J. Semmens—Beren's River mission—Difficulties that have to be overcome in Christianizing the Indians—Dr. Young's return home—Long sickness as the result of the hardships of the journey—Closing words—Quotation from the Rev. Dr. Punshon..... 278