

ther to be perswaded, shamed, or frighted out of the principles that have hitherto led to many of you to abhor the war, its cause, and its consequences. Let us not be amongst the first who renounce the maxims of our forefathers.

I have the honour to be,

GENTLEMEN,

Your most obedient,

and faithful humble Servant,

BRACONFIELD,
April 3, 1777.

EDMUND BURKE.

P. S. You may communicate this Letter in any manner you think proper to my Constituents.
