

ties and so much uncertainty in these our early struggles for the establishment of our Ecclesiastical polity, we have been "enabled, as in ancient days, to assemble in one body," and have been permitted to lay a good foundation according to catholic usage.

I remain,

Very sincerely,

Your faithful brother in Christ,

F. MONTREAL,
Metropolitan.