

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	PAGE
INTRODUCTION.....	7
Poultry suited to all conditions.....	8
Small outlay to start.....	8
Regular returns.....	8
Good markets.....	9
A satisfactory climate.....	9
Good cheap feed.....	9
Hens as homemakers.....	10
Not a new business.....	10
Important though a side line.....	10
THREE CLASSES OF POULTRY KEEPERS.....	12
Back-yard Poultry.....	12
Winter poultry and summer garden.....	13
The value of table scraps.....	13
Farm poultry.....	13
Farm poultry pays.....	15
The size of the flock.....	16
Revenue from 100 hens.....	16
Estimate.....	16
The housing.....	18
Movable houses.....	18
Permanent houses.....	18
Hens do not damage crops.....	18
The yard.....	19
Crops suitable for yards.....	19
Sunflowers.....	20
Artichokes.....	20
Poultry farms.....	21
Poultry farms need not be failures.....	21
Special egg farms.....	21
Special duck farms.....	22
A combination good.....	22
Don't start too big.....	22
VARIOUS PEOPLE WHO MIGHT BE INTERESTED.....	23
Those who work indoors.....	23
Young women.....	23
Those seeking for health.....	24
The country minister.....	24
MANAGEMENT.....	24
Make some one responsible.....	24
Supply sufficient equipment.....	24
Make manager partner.....	25
BEST VARIETY.....	25
How to choose a breed.....	25
Hardy breeds for cold climates.....	25
Give honor to breeders the preference.....	26
Consider market demands.....	26
PURE BREEDS AND HOW TO GET THEM.....	26
Mongrels vs. pure breeds.....	26
How to procure.....	26
Eggs for hatching.....	26
Breeding stock.....	28
Day-old chicks.....	28
Grading up the flock.....	28