vailing at St. Patrick's Market, where the Jewish butchers kill their chick-The alderman visited the market twice last week and found an abundance of chicken blood and feathers. He explained that many of the people in the vicinity were complaining and urged that something be done to remedy matters. Property Commissioner Chisholm recommended that a separate building be put up and rented to the chicken butch ers. "It is true that there is a smell, but there is some business being done and they are complying with the regulations," said the commissioner, Jacch Cohen, J.P., appeared on be half of the butchers, pointing out that nearly all the stalls in the market were rented to "his people," and urging that a suitable place be provided for the killing. He told the committee that there were 35 Jews in the city authorized to kill fowl and that only ten of them were using St. Patrick's Market.

Ald Ball suggested that they all be compelled to use the civic abat-toir, but Ald. ONLY SEVEN WORKERS REFUSED TO STRIKE

Four Joined Union Recently and Lively Discussion is Expected at Meeting.

The press committee of the striking electrical workers of the Hydro-Electric System stated yesterday that only seven men who were members of the union refused to strike. Four of these men, the union representative said, had only joined the union a day before the strike. Of the three other union men who did not strike one was a trouble man and the other two were overhead construction men,

It is expected that there will be some lively discussion when the various executives of the local unions meet in the Labor Temple Wednesday night to decide what action will be taken by organized labor in the present strike.

Representatives of the strikers stated yesterday that they had specific cases where section 57 had been violated by the commission and that they would present them at Wednesday's meeting.

The strikers state that they understand that the commission reduced the wages of certain foremen who were paid on the monthly basis and that other workmen had to work at a reduced wage.
