

PREFACE.

TO THE PEOPLE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA:

I have undertaken the publication and circulation of the following letter: I have engaged to do so willingly, and will do my best to make it known, because I believe the sentiments contained in it are entertained throughout British Columbia, and will be responded to by those whose welfare is sought to be advanced by the suggestion offered.

J. H. BATTERTON,

EXPRESSMAN.

I have any.
you be task I also to
My
What
name
who re
ony; t
lic gov
having best as remedi
The Englan
power
the pr
politica
Fello
WHO
been g
of pop
land, t
Our
which ever si
Our