The Rave!s are drawing crowded houses at Nible's. Mr. John Denier nightly appeared in a terrific act of skill and daring—entitled

THE GREAT DROP ACT OF LA TRAPEZE PERILLUESE.

—[N. Y. World.

Huntington Hall—capable of holding 2,500 people—was filled to overflowing last evening, to witness the performances of the wonderful Denier Brothers.—[Lowell Courier.

Last night the celebrated Gymnast, Mr. John Denier (who is not unknown to fame) made his first appearance this season in a new and terrific act of skill and daring, which to be appreciated must be witnessed, and when witnessed fill the beholder with wonder and admiration. The feat accomplished was that introduced by the Hanlon Brothers and represented at Nible's on frequent occasions. It has never before been successfully imitated—but the interest manifested last night, the breathless attention, the crouching attitude of that portion of the audience not favored with front seats, proved at once unmistakably, that it was a success, and that Mr. Denier had gained the apex of professional ability. The feat is performed at a high elevation, and with such rapidity that the eye can scarcely follow the movements, which are terminated by a leap to a suspended rope by which the Gymnast the stage. It is a grand performance, and to be appreciated must seen.—The Brooklyn Eagle.

THE DARING FEAT of walking upon a rope from in front of Robinson's buildings, on Central Row, to the roof of the American Hall, was successfully performed last evening, by John Denier, one of the troupe of Gymnasts, now performing at the theatre. Six or eight thousand people applauded the daring performance as he stepped upon the ballustrade.—The Hartford Daily Courant.

John Denier walked the tight rope from the top of a pole about 75 feet high, in front of Robinson's building, to the top of American Hall, at 7 o'- clock last evening. The feat was successfully performed, to the admiration of several thousand people gathered on the State House Square. The last of it—ascending the steep pitch near the Hall—was very difficult.—The Hartford Evening Press.

Opinions of the Press

In relation to the Extraordinary Performances of

MR. JOHN DENIER, for 14 years leading Gymnast, Pantomimist, and Tight Rope Artist of the Renowned Ravel Troup.

Yesterday Mr. John Denier, the daring Gymnast, crossed the Niagara Falls, in the presence of the Prince of Wales and Suite. The famous Blondin carrying him upon his back.

The last daring feat of the wonderful Denier was walking on high stilts, his body bound with chains and a sack over his head.—[Bridgeport Sentinel

Hundreds were unable to gain admittance last evening, to witness the astonishing performance of the Denier Brothers.—[Springfield Republican.

Smyth's Hill is a scene of the most intense excitement. Hundreds are nightly turned away. The performances of the Denier Brothers are truly wonderful.—[Manchester Mirror.

Mr. D. is one of the most graceful and expert Gymnasts in the country, and his engagement is another evidence of the managerial desire to secure novelty.—[Evening Transcript.

He walked nimbly across the whole length of the rope, and after resting a few moments he commenced his return, but this time he walked backwards. When he arrived at the centre, he seated himself on the rope and stripped his balance pole to it, and proceeded to execute some very difficult gymnastic feats: after which he unfastened his pole, and rising to his feet as easy and graceful as could be done on a floor, he proceeded at an easy gallop to the end of the rope, amid the plaudits of an admiring crowd.— [Daily Evening Traveller.

The stigma is now removed, however, for if we have not a Blondin, we have a Mr. John Denier, who styles himself "champion Gymnast and Tight-Rope Artist. Our men are an artist. Blondin don't claim so much as that, therefore we can afford to pity the New-Yorkers.—[Boston Herald.

That Denier is a wonderful man.— After having thrilled the thousands and tens of thousands by performances that have had no superior for daring —[Boston Evening Gazette.

INCREDIBLE.—It is rumored that Mr.
Denier, the daring funambulist, will shortly commence at the middle of his rope and walk towards both ends at the same time.—[Evening Transcript.

He executed some of the most wonderful feats, while on the rope, ever witnessed in this vicinity. Amid stupid cries of alarm from the female portion of the spectators, he proceeded with his new and original act, entitled La Trapeze Perilleuse, which we understand, has never been attempted by any other artist.—[Boston Post.
