

by a written permission from the Principal and Preceptress, is expressly interdicted. No young Gentleman is permitted to visit those parts of the buildings or premises assigned exclusively to the young Ladies. For the first violation of this law the Student shall be punished according to circumstances; and for the second he shall be expelled from the Institution.

IX.—Habitual indolence and inattention to study will be regarded as an offence against the Laws and spirit of the Institution, and will be made the subject of such discipline as the Faculty may deem expedient.

X.—In addition to ordinary letters, the Students are required to write to their Parents or Guardians at the close of each Term. These letters shall be examined by one of the Teachers, who will insert a report of their scholarship and moral deportment.

XI.—All resident Students are required to attend public worship on the Lord's day, both in the forenoon and afternoon, under the Ministry their Parents or Guardians may prefer. Neither riding nor visiting on the Sabbath, going abroad into the fields, frequenting the village, collecting in each others Rooms, engaging in any of the ordinary week-day diversions, making any disturbance, nor lounging about the premises; in a word, no species of conduct by which that hallowed day would be desecrated, will be allowed.

XII.—No Student entering upon the last Term in a Session will be at liberty to leave before the Public Examination, unless in case of peculiar necessity, the reason for which shall appear satisfactory to the Faculty. On leaving the Institution, each Student shall receive a letter stating his moral character, general deportment, habits of industry and attention to business, the various branches he has pursued and his proficiency.

XIII.—All Students from a distance, who are not accommodated by intimate family connexions in the village, are required to board in the Institution.

XIV.—It is earnestly recommended to all within these walls to read a chapter in the Bible, and offer up prayer, morning and evening to Him who by the mouth of his Apostle hath said, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him."

APPLICATION for admission into the Academy, to be made to the PRINCIPAL.