VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN AGAINST SOGIAL EVIL

Dr. Winfield Hall's Address Stimulates Movement-Liberals Like Rewell Appointment.

HAMILTON, Nov. &-(Special.)-The need of a minister of health in the Ontario Government was emphatically declared by W. M. McClemont, K.C., tonight before a mass meeting of men in Association Hall. The statement was made when Mr. McClemont moved a vote of thanks to Dr. Winfield S. Hall, who delivered a highly valuable lecture who delivered a highly valuable lecture who delivered a highly valuable lecture. tario Government was emphatically de- 3 to 2 should not be left to parents not to the Y.M.C.A.," said Mr. Clemont. "There is no more serious matter than the question of virile manhood and nothing receives less attention from the government. It is a crime that something isn't done towards public education along these lines and that government should take the matter up quick-

Dr. Hall made a strong plea for one standard of morals for both men and standard of morals for both men and women, and gave as his solution of that vexed question that sons should be taught to be as clean living as daughters. He advised parents of girls to insist upon knowing the physical history of suitors.

T. M. Best, secretary of the Hamilton F.M.C.A., under the anspices of the international commutee, of which organization Dr. Hall is lecturing proposed that a campaign against the social evil in Hamilton, beartily approved at once. Dr. Roberts, medical health officer of Hamilton, beartily approved Dr. Hall's remarks, and thought the growing social evil should be nipped in the bud here. He stated that next year he intended to ask the city council for an appropriation for publishing health bulletins in the city.

Chas. Fee was defendant in a suit in division court this morning, brought by a local furniture concern, to recover $20, balance due on a $40 wedding present which Fee and his wife previous to their marriage were said to have bought for another couple. It was claimed by the plaintiff that Fee had agreed to pay half of the price of the furniture, but as his flance of the furniture, but as his flance had made the bargain, acting Judge McBrayne decided that Fee was not re-sponsible and dismissed the action with Toronto Jail Breaker Caught.

Another member of the celebrated gang of jailbreakers who, led by the highwayman Alex. Rose, made a sensetional escape from the Toronto city jail in 1908, has been taken into custody here. The man was arrested by Deputy Chief of Police Whatley last Monday, and at the time gave the name of John Cross. To-day, however, he was identified by Detective Guthrie of Toronto and Guard Ellictt of the Toronto jail as John Copeland, who made his getaway with Rose and his party. He was taken back to Toronto this afternoon. Deputy Chief Whatley is being congratulated on his clever piece of detective work in arresting the escaped man. Copeland was working as a pedlar when arrested here.
