PAT MORAN'S REDS GAIN ON THE GIANTS

Winning Double-Header From Braves—Leaders One From the Pirates.

At Cincinnati (National).—The Reds shut out Boston twice yesterday in the closing games of their series, 5 to 0 and 2 to 0. Both Fisher and Luque pitched well and their support was very fast. Hite was bunched off by Russell in the first game, in which the Reds earned all five of their runs. In the second Keating allowed only four hits. An error by Russell and two sacrifice hits gave Cincinnati its first run, and the second was scored on a walk, a wild pitch and a single by Deane. The first game was played in a drizzling rain. The scores: First game—Cincinnati, 5; Boston, 0. Second game—Cincinnati, 2; Boston, 0. Batteries—Russell and Gowdy; Fisher and Wingo.

At St. Louis.—Philadelphia collected sixteen hits, for a total of twenty-six bases, off four St. Louis pitchers and easily won the second game of the series 11 to 4. Packard, who hit hard, held his former team mates in check whenever they threatened to score. The scores: First game—Philadelphia, 11; St. Louis, 4. Second game—Philadelphia, 11; St. Louis, 4. Batteries—Packard and Truesdale; Jacobson, Sherrill, Ames, May and Clemens.

At Pittsburgh.—New York defeated Pittsburgh in the closing game of the series 5 to 2. Douglas kept the locals' hits scattered. Doyle's error gave the visitors a run and Southworth's triple with a man on base the other. Carson was hit hard in the first inning, two singles, a double and two triples scoring four runs. He scored down by that, and with the exception of the third inning was never in danger. A pass, a steal of second and a single scored the fifth run for the visitors. Max Carey made his first appearance at bat for the week when he hit for Carson in the eighth and doubled to left. The scores: First game—New York, 5; Pittsburgh, 2. Second game—New York, 5; Pittsburgh, 2. Batteries—Douglas and Gonzalez; Carson, Hamilton and Lee.

At Chicago.—Chicago-Brooklyn game postponed, rain.

Red Sox Beat Tigers by Umps' Ruling in 12th

At Washington (American League).—St. Louis made it two out of three from Washington by taking the final game of the series, 3 to 2. Johnson and Snodgrass each allowed only two earned runs, until the ninth, when Johnson scored by cutting run on a single thru Leonard, a steal of second and Leonard's error on a double play. The scores: First game—St. Louis, 3; Washington, 2. Second game—St. Louis, 3; Washington, 2. Batteries—Johnson and Snodgrass; Leonard and McInnis.

At New York.—Chicago broke even on its four-game series with New York, taking the last game of the series, 7 to 3. One White Sox hit shore hard and knocked him out of the box in the fourth inning. Kerr pitched well for Chicago in the pinches. Including his last time up in yesterday's game, he was walked intentionally, with men on bases, the fourth successive time at bat. When permitted to hit the ball in the seventh inning, Jackson hit a three-base hit. The scores: First game—Chicago, 7; New York, 3. Second game—Chicago, 7; New York, 3. Batteries—Kerr and Schalk; Shore, Smallwood and Hannah.

At Boston.—The nineteen-year-old Walter Hoyt, pitching his first game for Boston, gets credit for defeating Detroit, 2 to 1, in 12 innings, the winning run coming over with two out in the twelfth, on a ruling by Umpire Hildebrand, who said that Alsmith had interfered with Base-runner McNally, between third and home. With one out in the last of the twelfth, Hoyt walked and McNally ran for him. Roth popped to Young, Ruth batted a single off Heilmann's glove and McNally took the lead and scored towards home. He was caught off and in the attempt to rundown Hildebrand ruled that Alsmith interfered. Detroit players protested the decision, following Umpire-on-base Morality put Bush out of the game in the first of the twelfth for too strongly protesting a decision at first score. The scores: First game—Boston, 2; Detroit, 1. Second game—Boston, 2; Detroit, 1. Batteries—Ayers and Alsmith; Hoyt and Schang.

At Philadelphia.—Philadelphia-Cleveland game postponed, rain.

At Newark.—Newark-Baltimore game, played yesterday.

At Reading.—Reading-Jersey City game postponed, wet grounds.

At Binghamton.—Binghamton-Buffalo game, postponed, rain.

At Rochester.—Rochester-Toronto game postponed, rain.

WANT PAT RAGAN.

New York, July 31.—William Gleason, manager of the Chicago Americans, was informed here today that the Pittsburgh Nationals had put in a claim for Pitcher Pat Ragan, signed yesterday by the Chicago Americans after he had been released by the New York Nationals. A National League rule provides that after a player receives his ten days' notice of release, other National League clubs have first right to his services.

Mint Leaguers Battle For Tail End Honors

Kitchener, Ont., July 31.—Frank Quinn, who was taken out of the box last evening in the third inning against London, was given permission by Manager Beatty to go back to the mound this evening and shut out the Londoners by a score of 2 to 0 in a fast and well-played game. Lefty Schmidt pitched for the Cockneys and held the Beavers down to three hits, but issued six passes, while Quinn allowed six hits and one pass. The Beavers scored their two runs in the fifth. After Lyons had filed to Com-mand, Argus walked, Quinn fanned, but Kyle singled and went to second when Emery let the ball pass him. Argus scored. A wild pitch by Smith allowed Kyle to score. London bunched hits in the fifth and sixth, but fast fielding by the Beavers prevented any scoring. The teams leave in the morning for London to finish the week. Although it rained all day until 3:30 the grounds were in good shape. The scores: A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.

YORK LAWN BOWLING TOURNAMENT TOMORROW

More Entries and the Draw for Third Annual at the West End Clubs.

As was anticipated, the third annual York bowling tournament, which begins tomorrow on six of the west end greens, is "bigger than ever," with 112 rinks entered, against 102 last year, and some sixty-odd rinks in the first season. No tournament has a better array of prizes and trophies than this tourney, thanks to a wideawake executive, and in addition to the silver trophies, over $600 will be distributed in individual prizes. Play in the preliminary round will begin tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, and the first round at 4:30, while, on Civic Holiday, play will resume at 2 a.m., and it is expected that the final in the Goodyear (or feature) trophy will be played at High Park green at 7 o'clock on Monday night. During the remainder of the week play will begin each day at four o'clock.

Entries for the doubles and singles will close at the various greens at 6 p.m. Monday, and play will commence Wednesday afternoon. The following is the draw:

Doubles Tournay On August Eleven

Newton, Mass., July 31.—Officials of the Longwood Cricket Club announced today that the lawn tennis national doubles championship would be played on the courts of the Longwood Cricket Club. It was a straight set victory, the scores being 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.
The match was won by Johnston's overwhelming speed. Although he made fewer placements than Williams, he placed his shots so that Williams' bats and out to run high. Both men frequently made "retts" that seemed all but impossible.
Williams made a total of 17 double faults in the three sets, putting his second ball over swiftly as the first. Each scored three service aces. The break came in the seventh game of the last set, when Johnston went thru Williams' serve, taking the game 4-1 and making the set stand four games to one. The gallery showed its dislike for a decision in favor of Johnston in a game in this set, and Johnston deliberately gave Williams a point, catching his opponent's serve in his hand.
Competing teams were announced as follows:
Norman E. Brookes and G. L. Patterson, national doubles champions of England, and members of the Australian Davis Cup team for 1919.
R. Y. Thomas and Randall Lyett, members of the Australian Davis Cup team for 1919.
Wm. B. Johnston and C. J. Griffin, United States national champions, 1915-16, and winners of the northwestern sectionals.
C. E. Doyle and F. H. Harris, winners of the middle Atlantic sectionals.
Fred B. Alexander and S. H. Voshell, winners of the tri-state sectionals.
It was announced that the winners of the southern and western sectionals would also compete.

'FRISCO EXPERT IS WINNER AT NEWTON

Newton, Mass., July 31.—W. M. Johnston of San Francisco won a second leg on the Longwood bowl by defeating R. Norris Williams of Boston today in the challenge round of the annual singles tournament on the courts of the Longwood Cricket Club. It was a straight set victory, the scores being 6-3, 6-3, 6-4.
