A Pro-Boer Anti-War Meeting in Trafalgar Square, London. Was a Failure.

NATIONAL ANTHEM SANG
Also "Rule Britannia," and the Speakers Were Unable to Get a Chance to be Heard.

CHEERS FOR MR. CHAMBERLAIN Hisses for Kruger and Exhortations for the Peace Orators, Accompanied by Eggs and Apples.

London, Sept. 24.—The attempt to hold a pro-Boer, anti-war demonstration at Trafalgar Square, London, this evening, resulted in a drastic failure. Thousands assembled, but not to support the speakers.
On the contrary, the members of the Union Jack and sang the National Anthem and Rule Britannia, the mighty invocations.
The speakers, who were quite inaudible, were received with groans, dried apples, eggs and other missiles. There were cheers for Mr.
Chamberlain, Secretary of State for the Colonies, and hisses for President Kruger. The list of speakers included none of special influence, most of them being labor leaders or socialists. The members of the peace associations had no opportunity to address the crowd. They were saluted with excretations as soon as they mounted the platform and were obliged to stand, smiling complacently, during the singing of the national anthem, and the wild cheering for Mr. Chamberlain. Their attempts to put their resolutions to a vote were the merest dumb show. Mr. Henry Hyndman, a socialist leader, was a particular object of animosity.
He was menaced with a forest of walking sticks when he tried to speak.

Soldiers of the Queen.
The shouldering of a soldier and a marine, their hands clasped in a protest against the square, provoked frantic enthusiasm and was altogether an impressive incident.
The audience burst into the song "Soldiers of the Queen."

There were several ugly rushes for the platform, which were surrounded by operatives. Finally the mounted police, who were stationed near the square, batons in hand, several persons were freely used, the speakers were tossed upon by the horses and 20 arrests were made.

On many of the passing omnibuses, which carry small numbers of passengers, the littered flags from their sockets and were waved vigorously.

Long before the intended hour all the proposed speakers had disappeared.
The opponents of the demonstration finally proposed resolutions in support of the Boer cause, which were carried with wild enthusiasm.

Will Try Again.
This evening the promoters of the demonstration held a meeting in private to discuss the failure of the public meeting.
In consequence of the organized interference of the anti-war demonstrators in Trafalgar Square to-day, founded by the section of yellow and stock-jobbing press, the committee resolved to hold a public meeting in one of the largest metropolitan halls at an early date.

ONE CHAPTER CLOSED
But Another is Expected to be Opened After the Next Cabinet Meeting.

New York, Sept. 23.—The London correspondent of The Tribune discusses the Transvaal crisis at length in his cabled letter to-day. He says: "One chapter of Transvaal diplomacy has been closed, and another will be opened after the next Cabinet meeting. During the interval, while the Boers are waiting for a two-day rain, which will clothe the veldt with verdure and enable their cavalry to move, and while the British reinforcements are at proceeding the Cape and Natal, there is leisure for the Boers to make their capitals of the two Dutch Republics.

Lord Kitchener Preparing an Immediate Expedition Against the Khalifa

WHO IS GAINING STRENGTH.
King Menelek of the Abyssinians is Said to Be Favoring the Khalifa Against Britain.

IF SO, THE SITUATION IS GRAVE.
Kitchener Believed to Have Furnished Some Bad News to the Home Authorities.

London, Sept. 23.—According to a despatch to The Daily Telegraph from Cairo, Gen.
Lord Kitchener, Governor-General of the Soudan, is preparing for an immediate expedition against the Khalifa.

To Capture the Khalifa.
New York, Sept. 24.—The London correspondent of The Sun says: Gen. Lord Kitchener, Sirdar of the Egyptian army, after somewhat prolonged and mysterious expeditions to the remote regions of the Soudan, is back again in Khartoum, and is understood to be devising a great scheme for capturing the fugitive Khalifa. Gen. Lord Kitchener by the telegraph wire and nothing is allowed to get out of the country in the way of news of which he does not approve. But information has reached England in private communications from British officers in the Soudan that affairs are not so well as Gen.
Lord Kitchener would like.

His Following Increases.
The Khalifa has largely increased his following and has been able to suppress several small risings of chiefs personally hostile to him. He is certainly getting armed and ammunitions, and the bulk of his big army mobilized, and is considerably better equipped than he was when he captured the Khalifa and they are now Soudan without the assistance of British troops, or even Egyptian troops, beyond those now in his command.

Kitchener's Chief Anxiety.
General Lord Kitchener's chief anxiety, however, is believed to be to suppress several small risings of chiefs personally hostile to him. He is certainly getting armed and ammunitions, and the bulk of
captured the Khalifa and they are now Soudan without the assistance of British
those now in his command.

Many children in the neighborhood of Grant-street gathered around a smouldering fire in a vacant lot on Saturday afternoon. They fanned the smoldering wood into flames, and kept the fire going with chips picked up in the field. Someone suggested that they get potatoes to roast, and the little ones got a supply from their homes.

Child in Flames.
In an effort to lift one of the roasted potatoes from the ashes, a spark ignited Mabel Kay's dress, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames. Her cries terrified the other children, and they ran away leaving Mabel alone. Walter, alone remained, and tried to extinguish the flames by rolling his sister in the grass.
The fire still remained, and Walter carried Mabel under his arm to her home.

Mother Man to Her Aid.
Mrs. Kay, the mother of the child, was quickly aroused by the cries of her daughter and ran down just as the child fell to the ground. She picked up the child and carried her to her home, where she was met by her husband. A neighbor ran for Dr. Conrad, who came and did what he could to relieve the child's suffering. Later Mrs.
Kendall and Allen arrived, and Mabel was placed under the influence of morphia.

Died Yesterday Morning.
She lingered in terrible agony until 4 o'clock yesterday morning, when she died.
Mabel's body was buried in the vault, and her throat was also burned by inhaling the fumes of the fire. The cause of the fire is being investigated.

Mrs. Kay is injured.
Mrs. Kay is still in a serious condition from the shock to her system brought on by seeing her child suffer such terrible agonies. Her arm is badly burned, and it will be only with the greatest care, the doctors say, that she can be brought around after simple but impressive ceremonies, conducted by Father Holyroth of the Russian Church, New York. The American people are yet to be conformed to the canons of the Russian Church.

Married to Prince Cantacuzene at Newport Yesterday.
Newport, R.I., Sept. 23.—In accordance with the wishes of the Russian Emperor, the Russian Princess, daughter of the late Emperor, was married to Prince Cantacuzene, Count Serebrinsky, granddaughter of Gen. Cyprian S.
Grant, to-night became the bride of Prince Cantacuzene, Count Serebrinsky, of Russia, after simple but impressive ceremonies,
conducted by Father Holyroth of the Russian Church, New York. The American people are yet to be conformed to
the canons of the Russian Church.

Willie Curran's Death.
Coroner's Jury Says Was Accidental—A Better Trolley Fender Needed.
After hearing the evidence of several attestees at the Wilton-avenue Station on Saturday night, the jury empaneled by Coroner Greig returned the following verdict: "That Willie Curran met his death about 7 p.m. on Friday, Sept. 22, at the corner of Sydney and Parliament streets, by being run over by a southbound trolley, and that the cause of the accident was that no blame can be attached to anyone at the same time we think that a better fender might have saved his life."

Only a few weeks have passed since the opening of the new fall fashions in fall hats and dresses, and despite the fact that the season is still in its infancy, the fall fashions have been brought out at one time in any season, some of the most popular lines were depicted in some sizes, but the replacements, in quantities sufficient to completely stock the store, have not yet arrived at Dineen's direct from the man-

ROACH ON SUSPENDED SENTENCE

All Belleville Turned Out to Greet the Young Man on His Return to That City.

Cobourg, Ont., Sept. 22.—(Special.)—Billy Ponton is home. After two years of constant worry and suspicion a committee of his fellows, after a brief consideration of one hour, have said he is guilty of the charge of robbing the Dominion Bank of Napanee in August, 1897. Billy Ponton was given out as is as respectable a citizen as any man in Canada. The cheers that went up in the court room from 500 throats expressed the popularity.

How They Got the Verdict.
The way the jury arrived at their conclusion is both novel and amusing. Every night after the court had risen the jurors gathered in the hotel, and asked the question: "Did to-day's evidence convict Ponton?" Every day the jurors were able to say "No." So the jury was delayed all day long in reaching a verdict. It was not until to-day's evidence, in the hands of the jury, was so convincing that they withdrew for an hour, but that matter of form than a matter of sympathy. Their decision has already been made.

A sight in the court room at the time the verdict was delivered will forever remain in the minds of all who saw it. Billy Ponton's mother was the happiest woman in the courtroom. When the glad news of her son's innocence was given out, she proud mother arose erect, turned to her son and joyfully kissed him. For three years she had been told that her son was a thief and a robber. Now she knew that he was a free man and a good citizen. The jury's verdict was a great relief to her.

BUNCO MAN CAUGHT.
The Rascal Dressed in a Bank Uniform and Passed a Messenger in London, Eng.

London, Sept. 23.—The ringleader of the band of highwaymen who stole $12,000 on Sept. 12 while in transit to a large bank in London, has been arrested.
At the time of the robbery the news was printed without the name of the bank.
The bank messenger, who was carrying the money, it is said, was "buncoed" by a bank.

Mr. T. Eaton Rapidly Recovering.
The condition of Mr. Timothy Eaton daily grows better. Dr. Cotton stated last night that his patient is rapidly recovering and is now suffering less pain.

Up for the First Time.
Dr. J. H. Caven, who has been laid up at his home for the last six weeks with typhoid fever, was able to be up for the first time yesterday afternoon.

Fair and Cooler.
Meteorological Office, Toronto, Sept. 24.
A pronounced low area has developed rapidly during the last 24 hours over the coast of the lake region, and within its influence the weather will be fair and strong winds. As a general forecast it may be said that the prospects are now favorable for fine weather, with a few showers and a temperature in Ontario, while further east it will be showery.

Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Victoria, 50-72; Kamloops, 50-74; Calgary, 42-70; Prince Albert, 36-64; Winnipeg, 44-62; Port Arthur, 38-60; Parry Sound, 44-62; Toronto, 46-68; Ottawa, 38-64; Mon-real, 38-60; Quebec, 32-52; Halifax, 38-58.
Probabilities.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Fresh to strong westerly to northeasterly winds; a few local showers, but for the most part fair and cool.
Southwest and west winds; showery at first then clearing.

Maritime—Fresh to strong southeasterly and southerly winds, foggy and cloudy, frequent showers. Lake Superior—Fresh to strong westerly winds; a few local showers, but for the most part fair and cool.
Manitoba—Fine and warm.
