ISLAM AGAINST THE INFIDEL

France Greatly Alarmed and Is Backing Up Britain-The Figaro Blames

London, July 9.—The fear of another "holy war" in Egypt, in which the native Mohammedan elements will unite in one last desperate effort to drive out the English "infidels" has become more acute since Sir Edward Grey made his sensational announcement in the House of Commons on Thursday night.

The recent outrages against Christians in Egypt and elsewhere appear to be the result of the general propaganda of fanaticism of last winter in preparation for the holy war which was then contemplated. There is abun-tire Moslem population. Moreover, it should be distinctly understood that the attitude of the natives in Egypt towards the English is in no sense one of revolt against oppression. Even the Moslem mind appreciates the wonderful advantages of the English administration of that country. It is simply a fanatical religious outburst. It is the feeling of easiness here over the Moslem peril than over the Russian situation. UPHOLSTERING AND REPAIRING AT It is interesting to note that France is supporting the English position in Egypt at this juncture even more
