SOLDIER'S WIFE SAYS SHE WAS FORCED TO MARRY CHINAMAN

Held For Bigamy in Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—A pathetic story of woman's error, suffering and reentance—of the tragedy that lurks a hidden places—and of the indecent aste or indiscretion of a Toronto lergyman in countenancing an arangement which on the face of it outaged every sense of social propriety, was revealed by Ethel Everingham, a ordon (Ont.) woman, when she apeared in Magistrate Cohen's court tolay on a charge of having bigamously married Crew Fai, a Chinaman, in Toonto in 1917, while her first husband was still alive.

d another letter from her first husband, who offered to take her back and forget the past.

"That form of marriage she went through ought to be looked into," remarked the court. "I don't believe she is married to this Chinaman at all."

Chew Fai, the alleged second husband, was remanded on bail until the 13th inst., on a charge of marrying the accused, well knowing her to be already married.

Questions This Afternoon.

Public utilities commissioners likely will have a busy session this afternoon when they hold their first meeting since early summer. Several important questions are to be considered, and in addition, there is a large amount of minor business.

The water supply is likely to be the chief topic. Well drilling operations have been in operation for some time, but no large drinking supplies have been discovered. The commission will decide whether to continue with these experiments or to go further afield in search of spring water. Commissioner F. G. Mitchell favors the latter plan, pointing out that there are large supplies of water in the vicinity of Komoka which could easily be connected with the present system.

Another question for consideration will be the rebuilding of the Springbank dam. This is likely to be of a general nature, and it is not probable that definite action will be taken at this meeting.

Statement issued in connection with the "Week" conducted in the Lehigh Valley. The fillowing are come of the results: (1) A reduction of 92 per cent in mining accidents; (2) a reduction of 80 per cent in electric railway accidents: (3) a reduction of 90 per cent in accidents at the largest industrial plants in the Lehigh Valley. Max Lerner Purchases London Ready-To-Wear

An important business deal is announced in the purchase of the London Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Store at 256 Dundas street, by Mr. Max Lerner, an energetic young businessman who has had a wide experience in serving the public in a business way. Mr. Lerner, who has just returned from a purchasing trip has secured a consignment of ladies' attractive exclusive garments in order to make room for which a mammoth sale will be held this week, when goods and stock will be sold for rock bottom prices. Mr. Lerner has served on the city council and is well known to Londoners for his active efforts on behalf of all classes of citizens. He has advanced ideas on to co-operation, and it is stated that in co-operation, and it is stated that in the future he will have an interesting announcement to make regarding a profit-sharing plan.

TORONTO, Oct. 6.—The Ontario Association of Architects, the provincial section of the Architectural Institute of section of the Architectural Institute of Canada, does not approve of the action of Western University at London in proposing to employ a United States firm of architects. The proposal to collect several hundred thousand dollars in the province for the purpose of providing facilities to produce and improve Canadian brains on the one head, only to employ United States brains on the other does not appeal to the Ontario members of the profession. The association is preparing to lay its case before the tariff commission when it sits in Toronto.

Ashplant, Labor nominee for mayor, but there were statements made in the council meeting last night, that Mr. Young had "right-about faced" and "broken faith with the Labor representation committee." Wednesday night's vote was the first vote to actually exclude Mr. Young, but on a previous occasion his credentials were rejected on the ground that they were not properly signed and sealed. The amendment against his admission stood 23 to 10. The amendment against his admission stood 23 to 10.

Ask Admission.

Several of the council members deeming it unwise to further exait Mr. Young in the role of a martyr, pleaded for his admission to the council as a mere matter of fairness, but they were heavily out-voted. Some of Young's opponents apparently were not content merely to exclude him and wanted to censure him also.

Coffee Here Again

Other Reductions Are Being Made in Local Restaurants.

Restaurant prices, following other costs of staples and necessities, have at length turned into the steady, downgrade of lower prices. Restauranteurs are no longer complaining of the enormous loss sustained in selling coffee at five cents a cup and one Dundas street cafe proprietor has started the ball rolling on the price toboggan by marking down everything on his menu five cents. Now it is once again prossible to get a so-called meal for 35 cents, whereas a week ago it cost 40 cents all the way from 60 cents to $1.25 are from 5 to 15 cents cheaper, 5 cents' reduction being made in each separate a Abolish Anthem.

Quietly and by a practically unanimous vote, the council rescinded a motion passed some time ago to close the meetings of the council by singing "God Save the King." Joseph Hill, moving the resolution, said he was not disloyal; in fact, he had received a letter from the Prince of Wales, but the war was over and he thought the council could very well dispense with singing the anthem in question. There was only on contrary vote.

Loyalty to the American Federation of Labor on the part of same of the delegates did not appear any too strong when Secretary Tite reported that the international body still failed to answer the communication of the local council asking why Fred Young was appointed local organizer instead of the council's nominee. In the discussion which followed Mr. Tite stated that it was "not very encouraging to belong to the A. F. of L. under such circumstances." President Mc-Kay called Mr. Tite to order for this remark.

It is the cheapest, as well as the best, when time, labor, wear and quality of product are considered. Look well to service when you buy a cream separator. That means more than anything else. That should include not only a good working and reliable machine, but the right sort of attention and interest on the part of the seller, not only at the time the machine is set up, but as long as you continue to use it. De Laval service is well known. You can depend upon it.

Value depends upon the amount and quality of service the separator gives you—what you get out of it. You get more value for your money when you buy a De Laval, because it will give you more and better service than any other separator.
