SOCIETY ATTENDS CHURCH

The members of the Irish Protestant Benevolent Association attended the service in St. Paul's Anglican Church last night, when they listened to a sermon by Archdeacon Cody. It was the annual church service of the society and there were about 400 mem-bers present. and his discourse last night was a continuation of the study of the life and showed how thru adversay a man's name is made permanent. It was after the hours of sorrow and affliction that Jacob's cup of joy was filled to overflowing.

"Growth in transplanting" was the subject of Archdeacon Cody's discourse and by showing the growth of the Israelites after Jacob was transplanted into Egypt, where his death occurred, he illustrated how the sons of Britain have in the present age carried into other lands the traditions of the mother country.
