"Hotch-Potch," ch.f., thoroughbred, by Giganteum, out of "Hot Bird." This filly has speed and showed one-eighth in 12 1-3 seconds, and a quarter in 24 1-2 seconds. She has excellent feet and legs, and would make a first-class saddle horse, as she is quiet and kind.

"Sugar Pine," b.g., 6 years, 16.2 hands, by "Martus the Second," out of "Saccharine." This gelding is very fast, and at Pimlico recently won an event against such horses as "Ontario" and "Wursome." and he also won a six-furlong race against "Giles," "Winning Star," "Servile" and others. This horse is a grand jumper, or would make a capital hunter. To be sold at 12 o'clock Tuesday.

N.B.—In the interest of the public, who from time to time visit The Repository in search of their particular class of horse, we will in future endeavor to set an hour for the sale of any horses of special worth or extra good breeding, Our auction sales are sometimes of great length, and we believe it will be more convenient to those interested in the sale of any particular horses to offer them at a certain hour.

SHAUN RHUE IN 5 HEATS WINS DUFFERIN SPECIAL

Defeats Margaret Leonard in Hard Contest With Close

The Toronto Driving Club matinee at the Dufferin Park track yesterday drew a big crowd, and the racing provided for trotters was one of the hardest fought out races ever seen at the track, between Shaun Rhue, Mr. O'Halloran's entry, and Margaret Leonard, a product of Miss Wilks' farm at Galt, now owned by John Hutson. Every heat except the fourth, when Shaun Rhue had an accident, making his bid in the stretch, a wheel going down with him, was of the hair-raising kind. In the fifth heat Margaret Leonard had a two-length lead turning into the stretch, but Armstrong set to work on his horse and gradually reduced the lead, but Dennis was working on his charge, and looked to have the heat, when Shaun Rhue loked his nose in front right at the wire, amidst great cheering from the crowd, which was an excited one, as both horses were well backed.

In Class B pace and trot, Nettle Ethon was teh class after the first heat, which Smutt won, the former making a break at the stretch bend, which put her out of it.

In Class B, for pacers, Pat McCarthy uncovered a nice green pacer called Jack Watson. He won his race in straight heats, and showed he was game, as kid Medium raced him to the haif in 1.10 on the second heat, but he went on and made the kid cry enough, and won pulled up. He is a free-legged pacer, and makes no mistakes. He was well handled by Fleming.

Fleming.

Ald S. McBride's entry, Alex. McGregor, made a good showing in the grot, getting third prize, and showing a clean pair of heels to Belle Mason, the California trotter, with J. Look, the secretary, doing the driving. A il box of choodates was at stake between those two. James Noble, the starter, was at his best, and save good satisfaction, handling best, and save good satisfaction, handling
