side Their Quarters at Exhibition Camp.

With Plenty of Room.

Several thousand Toronto relative same time were No. 4, 5 and 6 pla-

Depot of the Divisional Cyclists.

SOLDIER SHOOTS

Third Battalion, Held

WAS AN ACCIDENT

Off When Pointed at Window.

by Police.

VOL. XXXVI.-No. 12,950

EVOLT OUELLED AFTER SERIOUS FIGHTING

Britain Invites U.S. to Form Neutral League to Enforce Law of Nations AVIATORS BOMB GERMAN WARSHIPS AT LOWESTOFT

Blockade Legal and Effective Britain Tells United States.

FRANCE BACKS NOTE

First Invasion of Neutral Rights Made by Germany. U. S. Told.

WASHINGTON, April 25.-The latest British note in answer to American protests against allied interference night at the state department, conchanges either in the theory or appli- tears. cation of a policy based upon admitted

ide 6100

of yearling ected herds, vernment sub......19

re cut, 1b. .32

Pot Roast,

id, per lb. .25 select, whole28

per bag 1.59 led Corn, 3

rated Apri-

ax or green,25

Five Roses95 L-lb. tin, .21

ess Raisins,

per 1b. .36

b. jar.. .28

per tin .10

lbs...... .25

Black Cur-

... ... 22

package, 23

1 Biscuits,
23

res. 25
gallon size 25 esse large 3, 3 pack25
m. 35

ABLES

ia Sunkist

seedlese, er doz, .39

size 3

EEDS

ble Seeds,

used ex-

ed, white,

The note, in which the French Government concurs, reiterates the milltary necessity of regulating commerce to neutrals contiguous to Germany and ade which was challenged by the last American note.

More diplomatic correspondence over the issue is expected to follow. The unanimity of sentiment among the world's neutrals for the protection of neutral rights is recognized in the in the face of German guns. British note, which refers to the subject in terms embracing not the rights of trade alone. It says in conclusion:
"His majesty's government have noted with sincere satisfaction the intimation contained in the concluding passages of the United States note, of the intention of the United States to undertake the task of championing undertake the task of championing the integrity of neutral rights.

Germany Did It First.

"The first act of this war was the unprovoked invasion by the enemy of neutral territory—that of Belgium—which he was solemnly pledged by treaty to protect. * * * * The disregard of neutral rights has since been extended to naval warfare by the wanton destruction of neutral merchant ships on the high seas regardless of the lives of those on board. * * * His majesty's government would wel-His majesty's government would welcome any combination of neutral nations, under the lead of the United States, which would exert an effective influence to prevent the violation of neutral rights, and they cannot believe

THOUSANDS SAY GOOD-BYE TO DEPARTING BATTALIONS D

Eighty-Third Marched Thru Eighty-First Entrained Be-Toronto Streets Before Boarding Trains.

WOMEN ACCOMPANIED ACCOMMODATION GOOD

Union Station and Platform Every Two Men Have a Berth Were Packed With Cheering People.

Tears shed for the 83rd going out to "fresh quarters" and not expected to and friends of the men of the 81st. return to Toronto until after the war Battalion were gathered in Exhibition is over, were shed in private. There were no tears at the Union Station. Park camp when that popular regi-It was a British farewell. The dominant note was, "Are we down hearted? toons of Cyclists of No. 2 Training Hands were stretched for a last good-by thru the cordons of the 92nd the relatives present to see the train and the 169th that held back the surgwith neutral trade, made public to- ing crowds. Women thrust out belated of them were visibly affected, making parcels of comforts and men stripped the scene perhaps the most pathetic tends that the practices complained of their pockets of smokes. Society wonare judicially sound and valid and that en were there to bid farewell to offithe relief which neutrals seek is rather cers, and women not in society were to be obtained by the mitigation of there to take what might be their last necessary hardships than by "abrupt look at privates. But there were no modern warfare."

It discloses that "an impartial and influential commission" has been appointed to find ways to minimize delays and pledges the allies to make their restraints on trade as little turness. Still there were no scenes at the standard of the brass of the last Farswan.

The Last Farswan.

In boarding the train the soldiers marched two deep out of the front door of the poultry building and then around the front and side of it to the tracks, passing thru a dense crowd of citizens, who shouted words of encouragement and good cheer to the bronzed and seasoned men in khaki.

Three bands, the brass and bugle of the Mary fire was moontered by all of the machine. There were no British casual-chiles. Women Were Tired.

"When I go believe me there will be no one at the station to see me off," said one of the 92nd, who escorted the justifies the effectiveness of the block- 88rd to the station. That was the sentiment of all. The women of Canada deserve the tributes that public speakers pay them. It was their Ypres at the Union Station. They bore themselves in face of separation as well as their men folk did and will do in the face of German guns.

Fully equipped, the ranks of the 83rd went shouting thru the crowd.
Hello, Walter. There's Walter. Hello, at the track-side. Hello, Walter. There's Walter. Hello, Walter. Good-bye dear; good-bye."
"Good-bye, old man. Good luck. Good-bye."
There was little more that was said except in a bantering tone.

"Billy, hello Billy." A pretty girl standing on tiptoe on a truck was waving frantically to a private. "Hello. Here take this." It was a box of candy tied up with red, white and blue ribtion. Most of the soldiers carried half a dozen paper parcels tied on to their

He Wants to Go. "We ought to be going too," growled one of the 92nd.
"If they tread on my shoes I charge the government with $8," said a well-dressed woman, pushed and jostled about in the crowd. "Oh, there's Jack," and the white boots were forgotten.
"Bob's gone. I saw him," said a man to the tired looking woman beside

(Continued on Page 2, Column 6).

Foe Attacked and Zeppelins Pursued Sixty Miles From Land.

RAIDS OVER BELGIUM

Two Aerial Attacks Carried Out Against Mariakerke Aerodrome.

LONDON, April 26, 12.01 a.m.-The An unusually large proportion of following official communication was issued at midnight concerning recent go out were women, Practically all aerial manoeuvres by the British air corps, aided by Belgians:

"On the morning of the 23rd, in spite yet witnessed in connection with any of most inclement weather, a bombing similar event occurring in Toronto attack was carried out by our naval since the commencement of the war.

The two trains were drawn up on the long siding at the back of the poultry building, which has been the s1st Battalion headquarters during the past winter.

Attack was carried out by our naval aeroplanes upon an enemy aerodrome at Mariakerke. The machines were heavily fired on, but succeeded in returning safely. As far as could be observed good results were obtained one of citizens, who shouted words of encouragement and good cheer to the bronzed and seasoned men in khaki. Three bands, the brass and bugle of the Sist, and the brass of the 162th stood nearby while the soldiers entrained, playing stirring patriotic airs, marches and bugle calls, to keep up the spirits of the crowd of citizens, and to prove that the troops themselves were not downhearted. The first train contained "C" and "B" companies and the Cyclists. The second train carried "A" and "B" companies, base details and the headquarters staff.

panies and the Cyclists. The second train carried "A" and "B" companies, base details and the headquarters staff.

Lisut.-Col. H. B. Belson, the $1st's commandant, who was wounded at Langemarck and $t. Julien one year ago, was one of those leaving on the second train. He stood on the steps of one of the rear coaches, and was the last members of the battalion to wave to the crowd that had gathered at the track-side.

Much praise is due to Major Geo.

Made All Arrangements.

Much praise is due to Major Geo.

C. Milsom, director of supplies and transport for this military district. It was he who had charge of the Toronto arrangements for the entraining of all the troops, and was responsible for things being run so smoothly.

A feature of the trains used by the troops was that an ample number of coaches was furnished and also that each set of two men had a berth to themselves, allowing every man an optacked the German ships off Lowestoft, dropping heavy bombs. Four enemy submarines were also attacked by bombs. One seaplane came under a heavy fire from the hostile fleet, but the pilot, aitho seriously wounded, succeeded in bringing his machine safely back to land.

"It is regretted that one pilot is reported missing. He ascended during the zeppelin raid earlier in the morning and appears from reports to have attacked a zeppelin off Lowestoft at about 1.05 a.m. He has not been heard from since." themselves, allowing every man an op-portunity to lie down and rest at any

FUSE INQUIRY STARTS TODAY STEPDAUGHTER

John Gent, Member of Eighty- J. W. Flavelle and Sir Alexander Bertram May Testify First.

MANY LEGAL LIGHTS

Automatic Pistol Did Not Go Impressive Array of Counsel Ready to Get Into Action.

With the remark, "This is the way By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, April 25.—Interest tomor

BIG FORCE OF ARMED REBELS OVERCOME IN DUBLIN

The Sox Have Arrived Shipment Sent Thru the World Reaches London Safely and by Now is Distributed in France.

The following letter speaks for itself:

Westminster Palace Hotel, London, April 6, 1916.

The several thousand pairs of sox have now been delivered to us, and we have today despatched them to the various addresses in accordance with your instructions. "I have no doubt they will reach the front in due season, and that you will be advised direct by the recipients of their receipt.

"Many thanks for the two cases sent us for general distribution.

They will be dealt with in the ordinary way, and I am sure will be much appreciated by the men who receive them. "Yours truly,

"J. G. Colmer, "Secretary,
"Canadian War Contingent Association,"

ANOTHER AIRSHIP RAID UPON ESSEX AND KENT

enemy acroplane and drove it down. Brisk Gun-Fire Drove Enemy Of Before Damage Was Done.

3.39 a.m.-Hostile airships raided

"The number of raiders is uncertain," the communication adds, "but ers were met by a brisk anti-aircraft gunfire and retreated after achieving little or nothing."

ROBT. DAVIES' WILL FILED FOR PROBATE

Widow and Son G.H. Davies Among Trustees Vested With Full Powers.

EXTENSIVE HOLDINGS

Real Estate Valued at Nine Hundred Thousand-Bequests to Charity.

the City of Toronto, brick manufacturer was filed for probate yesterday afternoon. The will is dated the 29th of June,

The trustees of the will are: His wife Margaret M. Davies, his son, George Taylor Davies; Harry St. Jarvis and Adam W. Ballantyne,

The first provision of the will is th bequest to the testator's wife of the ousehold furniture; linen, china, books trustees are devised and bequeathed the rest and residue of the estate, both real and personal, with the following direc-

To each of the following is given $1000 Boys' Home on George street, Girls' Home, Gerrard street; House of Providence, Sick Children"s Hospital.

The businesses or enterprises in which conducted by the trustees during such period as they may think fit, free from the control or interference of any per-period as they may think fit, free from the control or interference of any person or persons financially entitled under the will, and to dispose of any business or premises in which such business is carried on, and the good-will, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade and other effects thereof, or any part, upon such terms as they may think proper.

Full Powers to Trustees.

The trustees are further given the following powers: To apply as capital in any such business any part of the income from the estate authorized to be retained for the benefit of the estate; appoint managers or agents to act in such business; to form at any time they may see fit to do so any business needing a limited company under the Companies Act, and the trustees are empowered to act as director or other servant of any such companies as may be formed. Trustees are also empowered to carry on or discontine any part or parts of such business or to augment or diminish the capital employed therein, and generally to act in relation thereto as if they were absolutely owners thereof.

The trustees have also power to dispose of any holdings in any limited liability company of the testator.

Any of the sons desirous of securing any portion of the estate can do so at a (Continued on Page 8, Colums 8). (Continued on Page 8, Column 8).

British Squadron Drove Enemy Off After Bombardment of Lowestoft.

ESCAPED IN DARKNESS

Warships Fought for Twenty Minutes-Four Civilians Killed by Shells.

LONDON, April 25 .- Stealing out under cover of darkness, a squadron of German battle and light cruisers made a raid on the English coast shortly after 4 a.m. today. The famous seaside resort of Lowestoft, 100 miles porthaged to the communication with Dublish and but that the communication with Dublish and the communication with 100 miles northeast of London, was bombarded at long range, two men.

bombarded at long range, two men, a woman and a child being killed in their beds. No important material damage was effected, however.

British light cruisers and destroyers soon appeared, and after exchanging fire for about 20 minutes, the German warsheps escaped in the darkness. Two British light cruisers and one destroyer were hit, but none of the warships was sunk. The damage sustained by the German warsheps and supplied that the situation are meagre ones contained in the official announcement but government officials expressed the opinion tonight that with Sir Roger Casement and two of his aides in prison, the troops were in control of the situation.

Birrell's Announcement.

Augustine Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, announced in the house of commons today that grave disturbances broke out in Dublin yesterday.

He added that troops had been sent to the Irish capital, and that the situation was now well in hand, altho, as age sustained by the German war- ation was now well in hand, altho, as ships is not known.

Zeppelin Raid Failure. The German naval raid came five hours after four or five zeppelins made an attack on the Norfolk and Suffolk coasts. It is thought that the Germans hoped to strike blows from the sea and air simultaneously with the "rising" in Ireland. In any event their plans were clearly miscarried.

The official statement on the zeppelin raid says:

"Last night's air raid over the Norfolk and Suffolk coasts appears to

(Continued on Page 2, Column 3).

MASSACHUSETTS VOTES "AGAINST ROOSEVELT MEN

Republican Primaries Indicate State Will Send Unemployed Delegation.

BOSTON, April 25.-Massachusett will be represented in the Republican national convention by an unpledged delegation, if the outcome of today's primaries may be judged from slightly more than one-half of the total vote tabulated tonight.

The returns came in slowly, but the figures available an hour before midnight left little doubt that the unpledged group of candidates for delegates at large, headed by Gov. McCall, had defeated the ticket, whose "members had declared themselves for the candidacy of former President Roosevelt, Troops From Curragh Camp. Aided by Loyal Volunteers, Control Situation After Losing Twelve Killed --- Rebels Seized St. Stephen's Green and Postoffice.

LONDON, April 25 .- Dublin ha been the scene of serious fighting between members of the Sinn Fein Society and regular troops reinforced by loyal volunteers. The loyalists lost about a dozen men killed and some 19 wounded. The casualties of the rioters have not been ascertained. Many of the disturbers were arrested.

The trouble started at noon Monday in the centre of Dublin, when a mob seized the Stephen's Green, a large park near the Royal University, the postoffice, where the telegraph and elephone wires were cut and houses in various parts of the town. Troops from the Curragh and loya volunteers were hastily sum and fighting between them and the mob began almost immediately.

An official communication concerning the disturbance was issued this ing the disturband evening. It says: "Well in Hand." "Mell in Hand."

"At noon yesterday serious disturbances broke out in Dublin. A large party of men identified with the Sinn Fein party, moetly armed, occupied Stephen's Green and took possession forcibly of the postoffice, where they out the telegraphic and telephone wires. Houses also were occupied in Stephen's Green, Sackville street, Abbey street and along the quays. "In the course of the day soldiers arrived from the Curragh, and the situation is now well in hand. So far as is known here three military officers, four or five soldiers, two loyal volunteers and two policemen have been killed and four or five military officers and seven or eight soldiers and six volunteers wounded. No exact information has been received of the casualties on the side of the Sinn Feiners.

"Reparts received from Cork, Limerick, Ennis, Tralee and both ridings of Tipperary show that no disturbances of any kind have occurred in these localities."

Confidence Restored.

ation was now well in hand, atto, as communication was exceedingly difficult he was unable to give any further particulars. But the house, he continued, might take it from him that the situation was well in hand.

Some Arrests.

The chief secretary for Ireland declared that there had been arrests, but he could not give any names.

At 7 o'clock last night, Mr. Birrell

At 7 o'clock last night, Mr. Birrell said four or five different parts of Dublin were in the possession of the rebels, but he said they did not control the whole place.

Seizure of Postoffice.

Mr. Birrell made his announcement in reply to 2 question by Commoner Craig immediately after the assembling of the house. He said that the postoffice had been forcibly taken possession of, and that telegraphic communication had been cut.

Five of the soldiers who had been rushed to Dublin from the Curragn Barracks, some 30 miles from the city, are among the killed.

Among the first questions put to the premier when commons convened was whether Sir Roger Casement would be shot forthwith for treason.

"That question should not be asked." replied the premier.

DINEEN'S FUR STORAGE. Send your furs early to our cold freshens the fur. The cost for storage is most moderate, The same price for all or part of the seasons.

Phone Main 6832. Dineen's, 140
Yonge street.

* WAR SUMMARY *

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

RELAND was the scene of a miniature insurrection on Monday when a party of Sinn Feiners started rioting, captured the post office and some houses in Dublin, and took pot shots at soldiers and lovalist volunteers, who hurried to the storm centre, killing about a dozen and wounding nineteen; but the authorities, according to the latest word, have gained the upper hand, and have arrested many of the conspirators. It was announced in London that with Sir Roger Casement and two of his chief aids arrested, it was believed flat the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation. The outburst is probably all the troops were in control of the situation of the situation. The situation of the situation latest word, have gained the upper hand, and have arrested many of