Rev. Dr. Shearer Gives Every Day Club Account of Prohibition Fight Progress in Canada—Bar-Room Must Go Down, Never to Rise Again

We people in the Maritime Provinces, are the majority of the people are Protestants, and we people in Ontario where the majority are Protestants, are disposed to think ourselves a little better and more advanced than the people of Quebec. But I think I can assure you in regard to this question of prohibition, in Ontario 315 out of 320 municipalities, have a total prohibition, but in Quebec nearly 700 out of a total of 1,008 are under some kind of local prohibition. They have in Quebec an institution that not even the Every Day Club can approach in effectiveness. The Anti-Alcoholic League. And who at the head of it? Archbishop Bru and Began and the hierarchy of the Catholic church. And splendid they are. A mighty power they are. I lay my hands in confirmation 20,000 children in a year, but upon who are not first pledged to total abstinence. Of how many Protestants can that be said? In a crowded house at the Every Day Club last evening spoke Rev. Dr. Shearer in the course of a brilliant address on the progress of the battle of the barroom. He began with a reference to the change in English sentiment toward the barroom. He said that in 1800 licenses in England and Wales, there had been 10,000, but in 1890 there had been 10,000, and even more. He said that in the United States, Dr. Shearer pointed out that half the territory and nearly half the people were under prohibition, and there is hardly a day when the despatches do not tell of some further advance. Discussing the situation in Canada, he said that while the present prohibition law is not ideal it is greatly in advance of the Scotch Act, as the Scotch Act was a license. After a reference to Nova Scotia and New Brunswick he made the comparison quoted between Quebec and Ontario, and went on to tell of the great work of the Moral and Social Reform Council of Manitoba, in which Catholic, Protestant and Icelandic Lutheran churches and temperance organizations are working to drive out the barroom and then to drive out the sale in shops. Passing on to British Columbia he declared that while that province is not as far advanced in actual temperance reform yet there has been a greater change of sentiment in the last year or so than in any other province even Quebec itself. Discussing then the general question, Dr. Shearer said that the four great agencies, religion, morals, science and economics, are arrayed against the barroom, and it must go down, never to rise again. Science tells man what it does to his body, religion and ethics tell him what it does to character and soul, and economics, represented by the employers of labor, make it pay men to be sober, because they discriminate against the man who drinks. The great railway, the great industrial corporations, make this discrimination. The speaker in conclusion exhorted his hearers to exert themselves in behalf of the cause.

It's Absolutely True

That coffee drinking gets on the nerves of some persons, upsets the stomach and causes headaches in others.

Quitting coffee and using well-made

CRIED EASILY

Nervous Woman Stops Coffee and Quit Other Things.

No better practical proof that coffee is a drug can be required than to note how the nerve become unstrung in persons who habitually drink it. The stomach, too, rebels at being continually drugged with coffee and tea—they both contain the drug—caffeine. Ask your doctor. An ex-woman tells the old story thus: "I had used coffee for six years and was troubled with headaches, nervousness and dizziness. In the morning upon rising I used to belch up a sour fluid, and I noticed my eyesight was getting poor."

"After using Postum a while, I observed the headaches left me and soon the belching stopped (water brash from dyspepsia). I feel decidedly different now, and I am convinced that it is because I stopped coffee and began to use Postum. I can see better now, my eyes are stronger. A friend of mine did not like Postum but when I told her to make it according to directions on the package, she liked it all right. I always boil Postum well and it will surprise you."

THE UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE

The October number of the University Magazine, being the first for the season 1909-10, was issued on Friday. It is a volume of 160 pages and contains sixteen articles. The leading article is by Professor Leacock, a consideration of the Moral Doctrine in its relation to Canada. C. Frederick Hamilton discusses the question, Shall Canada Have a Navy. Under the title of The Nine Prophets, Dr. Andrew Macphail has some comment upon the prophecies now running in "Colliers," as to the future of Canada. There are four other articles entitled Running Waters, by Miss A. Clare Giffen; In Love With Easle's Death, by Miss Mary E. Fletcher; The Forge, by Miss Mary L. Bradley; and La Douleur qui Veille, by E. B. Greenhalgh. Professor Macphail has a rejoinder to Professor Kirkpatrick under the title of The Scientific Criterion of Truth and its relation to Dogma. The other articles are: All Men are either Platonists or Aristotelians, by Maurice Hutton; Nova Scotia at Confederation, by J. W. Longley; Maritime Union, by Geo. G. Melvin; Sir Thomas Temple, Bart., by G. O. Bent; Aht Volger, Musicien, by Joseph Gould; Virgil's Messianic Eclogue, by G. Oswald Smith; The Beauty of Cicero's Speech, by J. A. Deane, and Art and Artifice, by Thomas L. Jarrot.

STRATTON WINS, TORY CHARGES DISCREDITED

Peterboro, Oct. 3.—Justice MacMahon and Magee yesterday morning dismissed without charge of bribery brought under the petition of J. H. Burnham, the unsuccessful Conservative candidate, to unseat J. R. Stratton, a member for West Peterboro. The charges referred to were known as the Leary charges, Leary being the man who was alleged to have dispensed $2 bills at the Liberal committee rooms.

Judge MacMahon, in his judgment, and Justice Magee in concurring, stated that they discredited absolutely the evidence offered against Leary, and they made strong animadversions on the difference of the class of evidence called by the petitioner and the respondent.

"Their lordships stated that the charges had been overwhelmingly met by the evidence of respectable witnesses, while they could not believe the witnesses for the petitioner. The charges were dismissed. Mr. Duvernay then announced his intention of dropping the petition, which was dismissed without costs. The cross petition was also dismissed. R. H. Shepherd, the witness arrested on a charge of perjury at the instance of prominent Conservatives, was brought before Police Magistrate W. D. Dumble and formally remanded for a week, bail being renewed.

CURTIS IN AIRONLY A MINUTE

New York, Oct. 3.—In a wind more treacherous than an aeroplane can well withstand, Glenn H. Curtiss started out to fly from Governor's Island, in New York harbor, just after sunset this evening. At Sea Level it appeared that there had come a lull in the strong wind which has whipped the harbor during the week, but when the aviator got into the air he found the evening breeze still fitful and after a minute aloft during which the aeroplane tilted at dangerous angles, he came safely to the ground.

MURDER TRACED BY MEANS OF BUTTONSlayer of Paris Publisher Found After Start From Little Clue

Paris, Oct. 4.—Not an ordinary coat button has just led to the capture of a murderer after a search of many months. On March 29 last, a postcard publisher named Donald Farquharson Fleuret, a native of Mauritius, was found slain in his offices in Paris. Near the body lay an overcoat bearing the mark of a Brussels firm of outfitters. The coat was much worn, and had been fitted with new buttons wearing a Buenos Ayres trade mark. Inquiries at Brussels were fruitless. The coat was then sent to Buenos Ayres, where, after a painstaking search, it was recognized by a tailor who did repairs for the customers of a small hotel there. He had sewn new buttons on the coat eighteen months ago for a Belgian named Knopkaert.

This man's movements were traced through a local shipping office to Paris, and it was ascertained that he was here at the time of the murder. Investigation into Knopkaert's career showed that he was a deserter from the Belgian army. Eventually he was traced to Brussels and was arrested.

Charged with the murder of Fleuret, he at once made a full confession that he had killed him in the course of a quarrel.

PLAN FOR VAST INLAND SEAIrrigation of 2,500,000 Acres in Four States

Denver, Oct. 4.—With a body of water that will be a veritable inland sea, the Inland Empire Irrigation and Power Company proposes irrigating 2,500,000 acres of land in four states. New York and Minneapolis capitalists are backing the deal. Colorado, Utah, California, Nevada and Arizona lands will be supplied with water by the enormous system of reservoirs and canals. The plan as outlined constitutes one of the most gigantic irrigation projects ever conceived and will cost millions. The reservoir, if it can be called that, he used Putnam's Lake. The company filed articles of incorporation with the Secretary of State of Colorado.

Is Britain Tired of Canada?

We don't think so, but we are sure no man has any chance of getting into the United Kingdom unless he can get in by the back door. It takes out root, stem, and branch, cures painlessly in 24 hours. Use only Putnam's.

C. P. R. WINTER SERVICE

The express for Boston will leave at 6:45 p. m., which is five minutes later than before. The express from Montreal will arrive at the usual hour, 8:55 a. m. The express from Boston which formerly arrived at 11:40 a. m., will arrive at 11 a. m. The express from Montreal will arrive at 12:00 a. m. instead of 11:30, as formerly. The express from Boston will arrive at 11:20 p. m. or five minutes later than before. The Boston and Maine change of time table also went into effect yesterday. The intercolonial time table will go into effect about the 17th of this month.

WHITES' COVE NEWS

White's Cove, Queens Co., Sept. 29.—A heavy rain set in on Friday last and with the exception of Tuesday, it has rained ever since. The prospects for the farmers to ever get in their buckwheat, much of which is not cut, is very discouraging, and the potatoes, in places, are about out of sight and it is still raining. Mrs. E. M. Hendry, who has been selling produce in the city market, came home by the steamer May Queen on Saturday. Mrs. Geo. Kierstead, of Norton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. W. White, left for her home on Monday last. A C. W. White shipped to St. John on Monday, a pumpkin which measured more than five feet in diameter and weighed 60 lbs. Who can beat this? Wm. Oltz, of St. John, north end, is here for a few days, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ferris. Hon. L. P. Farris went to St. John on Monday to attend the banquet given in honor of Hon. Wm. Pugsley, minister of public works.

LOSS OF VITALITY is loss of the power of the body and is early indicated by failing appetite and diminished strength and endurance. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitality—it acts on all the organs of the body, and builds up the whole system.

GROWTH OF GULF PORTS

Certainly the fact that both in exports and imports Galveston has had a greater increase than any other port is a fact of which not only Galveston but Texas should be proud. We have no doubt that Galveston will continue to enjoy that distinction. We believe even that Galveston is destined to rival if not excel New York in the value of foreign commerce passing over its wharves. The law of economy is working in its behalf, and instead of being hindered by powerful transportation interests, it is being facilitated by them. It used to be, not so very long ago, that the influence of practically all of the great transportation interests was on the side of either the Atlantic or Pacific ports. They tilted export commerce not in the direction of the shortest and cheapest route, but in the direction of the longest and most costly. Now it is quite otherwise. There are transportation systems whose interests are in the Gulf ports powerful enough to turn artificial trade currents. They have done it, and are doing it, and will continue to do it, and as they succeed Galveston's increase of commerce will become even more rapid than it has been—Galveston Morning News.

REQUESTS TO EMPLOYEES

Paris, Oct. 4.—Under the remarkable will of M. Chauchard, the millionaire proprietor of the Magazine du Louvre, the great Paris department store, the employees of that establishment, numbering nearly 5,000 have each received a legacy of about $12.50 for each year he or she has been in the service of the firm. Close-fitting styles will continue through the winter.

The Mission

Of those corpses in your blood that have been called the "little soldiers" is to fight for you against the disease germs that constantly endanger your health. These corpses are made healthy and strong by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine is a combination of more than 20 different remedial agents in proportions and by a process known only to ourselves and has for thirty years been constantly proving its worth. No substitute, none "just-as-good."

MAINE LEADS AS POTATO STATEYield Last Year Brought $16,000,000 and More Promises This Year

Bangor, Me., Oct. 4.—Maine stands second in the list of states raising the most bushels of potatoes, according to the statistical abstract recently issued by the government. New York alone eclipsing her. Maine heads the yield per acre with 225 bushels, the nearest to her being Utah, with 160. New York with her increased acreage getting but eighty-two bushels to the acre. New York leads in the total amount of potatoes with 34,500 bushels, against 26,100,000 in Maine. Maine compares most favorably however, for only has a claim of 116,000 acres planted, against 425,000 in New York, and stands ninth on the list in point of acreage. Maine received in 1908 an average of eighty cents a bushel, giving her a total yield of nearly $16,000,000. The average this season will be a trifle better according to present indications and Maine receives a larger income from her potato land, as well as a larger acreage than in 1908.
