HAMPTON, Feb. 1 - (Special) - The annual meeting of the Hampton and Norton Branch Bible Society was held last evening in Agricultural Hall, Hampton Village, the Rev. Mr. Whalley in the chair. The singing of a hymn, reading of scripture and prayer by Rev. Dean Hamington, were followed by an address on "The Book," introduced by the Rev. G. M. Campbell, D. D., travelling secretary of the Canadian Society, who spoke on the great work carried on in producing and distributing copies of the Word of Life. The Rev. E. S. Parker was the next speaker, his theme being "The everyday life," and this part of the proceedings closed with a setting forth of the claims of the society and the duty of rallying to its support. An anthem, "Send out Thy Light," by a large choir of mixed voices from the various churches of the village and section, under the leadership of Hamill Warnford, was well sung and much appreciated by the large audience present. There was no formal report from the secretary nor was the treasurer in a position to make a statement of the financial situation, the collectors not having been able to complete their work on account of prevailing sickness.

SMALL BOY TRIED TO STEAL LOBSTERS

A small boy's taste for lobsters very nearly got him into trouble in the country market about noon today.
 The youngster, who is about twelve years old, was hanging about the fish stall awaiting his opportunity and when he thought nobody was looking seized one of the lobsters and made off with it. The proprietor was too quick for him, however, and after a short chase had the youthful offender by the coat collar and rushed him to the market.
 The youngster showed no signs of penitence, and after receiving a brief, but pointed, lecture was allowed to go with the warning that if seen around there again he would be arrested.
