KOENIG WINS IN AIRPLANE RACE

Winner, Piloting Same Plane in Which MacReady Made Altitude Record, Travels 128.8 Miles Per Hour.

(Canadian Press Despatch.) Mount Clemens, Mich., Oct. 13.—In a race in which nine army planes participated, the navy having withdrawn its two entries, Lieut. T. J. Koenig, of Buffalo (N. Y.), won the Liberty engine builders trophy here today. Lieutenant Koenig piloted a Le Pere observation plane, equipped with a four hundred horse power Liberty twelve-motor over the 240 mile triangular course at an average speed of 128.8 miles an hour. The plane is the same in which Lieut. John A. MacReady established a world's altitude of 37,800 feet.

Second place in the race went to Major Follet Bradley, of Rantoul, who piloted a De Havilland 4-8 observation plane driven by a 400 horse power Liberty twelve-motor. Lieutenant Boyd, of Pittsburgh, piloting a similar plane, was third. His average was 122 miles in such of the ten laps. The navy announced shortly before noon that its two planes would not fly. No explanation was given. It was said, however, that late Thursday the army entered formal protest against the entry of the Vought observation planes of the navy, which are of a new type, claiming that the Vought planes did not carry machine guns and other combat equipment carried on the army planes. Speed trials for the world's record over a one kilometre course set for today were postponed because of adverse winds.

have discovered that the Communists' experiment has taken everything from them without giving anything in return. Mr. Bakhtmeteff said, and at a recent meeting of the miners in one district where the mining production is one-quarter of one per cent. normal, the Bolshevik leader began his address by saying, "Fellows, there is no doubt that the first thing we must do to start production in these mines on which our livelihood depends is to restore them to their proper owners."

MINERS PROTEST AGAINST ISOLATION

American Institute in Session in New York Urges Aiding in Europe's Rehabilitation.

New York, Oct. 14.—America must abandon its policy of isolation and participate immediately in the economic rehabilitation of Europe, is the opinion expressed in a resolution passed unanimously by the New York section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, at a meeting held at the Machinery Club for discussion of the Russian question.

This step should be taken, the resolution states, "not only on broad humanitarian grounds, but because it seems evident that without this help Europe will continue to be unable to achieve economic stability and without this a sound prosperity in the United States cannot be hoped for."

S. Reading Bertrou, chairman of the Board of the American-Russian Chamber of Commerce, declared that Europe was absolutely dependent on the United States to help it out of the economic "quagmire" in which it now finds itself, asserting that "the people of this country are unaware today that the economic situation in Europe is almost a critical as the military situation was in 1917, and is fraught with results which in the expenditure of life and treasure may equal that of the great war."

Boris Bakhtmeteff, an engineer who as just returned from Europe, declared that Communism in Russia was local. Mr. Bakhtmeteff would not predict the number of months which the Soviet regime could maintain its tottering hold, but assured his audience that the Soviet government was about to fall and that Russia would rise a reater nation than ever before in her history.

the people themselves, unfettered by the communistic government.

The resolution, which was sent to the Secretary of State and to United States Senators, Wadsworth and Calder of New York read:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the New York section of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers that the time has arrived when the United States should discontinue its policy of isolation and aloofness from world affairs; and that it should aid in the economic rehabilitation of Europe by aid of counsel, deeds and credits, not only on broad humanitarian grounds, but because it seems evident that without this help Europe will continue to be unable to achieve economic stability and without this a sound prosperity in the United States cannot be hoped for."
