FIFTEEN CENT CARAT STONE
New York, Dec. 18.—In an East Side jewelry store, Harry Weid, bookkeeper, purchased one half pound of sausage and one-quarter carats of diamonds—all for fifteen cents.

Well, a bachelor, procured the sausage for his breakfast. Eating his teeth came in contact with something hard. He spit it out and vowed he'd never buy sausage again.

He picked up the offending particle, found it to be a perfectly cut diamond, then went back to the grocery.

"Walsha want?" asked the grocer. "Fifteen cents worth of sausage,"
