

to the study of the literature of the pulpit. As much labor as the time allows, is spent upon style, and the preacher's general literary preparation for his work. It is the aim to help the free, manly development of each student's personality, and to secure the utmost effectiveness in the work of preaching.

In connection with the work in Homiletics, ample time will be given to the study of Hymnology; also to the reading of the Scriptures and Hymns.
