TARIFF TALK.

Confectionery Making Establishments.

will close every confectionery manu-facturing establishment in Canada. So said a manufacturer yesterday. In the first place, the specific duty of half a cent per pound is knocked off. In the second place, the preferential clause reduces the ad valorem duty to English goods from 35 to 30 1-4 per cent. But while the Canadian maker has an apparent protection of 301-4 per cent. (which after July 1, 1898, will be further reduced to 261-4 per cent.), he has to pay an average of 25 per cent. on all his raw material. The following table shows the duties on his raw material under the

The English competitor does not have to pay any duty on his raw materials. After July 1st, 1898, he will have a decided advantage over his Canadian competitor. he Hon. Mr. Paterson is himself the nominal head of a confectionery firm. His attention to politics has evidently rendered him unfamiliar with his old business. The Dominion Mfg. Conf. Association did not sent a deegation before the tariff comm believing Mr. Paterson would guard the interests of this important industry. Now liberals and conservatives alike are arranging to send a strong delegation to Ottawa to point out the disastrous nature of the change that has been made.
