The case of Mrs. Margaret C. Trenholm against her husband, Chester Trenholm was concluded in circuit court yesterday afternoon when at four o'clock the jury returned to the courtroom and Foreman R. R. Patchell announced that they had brought in a verdict for Mrs. Trenholm for $100 with out interest. J. Milton Price acted for Mrs. Trenholm and H. A. Powell, K.
C. contra.

An interesting sequence to the action of H. A. Powell, K. C., in calling Dr.
A. W. MacKase, K. C., a serpent, a serpent," upon the latter's nomination for the Conservative convention is the fact that Mr. Powell is to act for Dr. MacKase as counsel in the case of Whittaker v. Goggin which was begun this morning in circuit court before his honor Judge McLeod. Dr. Mac-Kase has retained Mr. Powell since the incident in question.

The new No. 6 wharf on West Side is to have additional stringers and beams to ensure the carrying of the C. P. R. trucks with safety. No. 5 wharf finished last year was, according to the C. P. R. officials, not sufficiently strong to carry the weight of the freight trains. The city accordingly placed extra stringers in the wharf to strengthen the railway company. Yet after the harbor sub-committee decided to do the same with No. 6 wharf.

One of the attractions at the exhibition for 1908 will be the exhibit of the Free Kindergarten of St. John. This exhibit will be in charge of Mrs. W. C.
Matthews, who has a training class for kindergarten teachers. The work of the children attending the Free Kindergarten will be exhibited, and the gift and occupation as carried on will be explained by a trained teacher each day. Children from the different kindergartens will demonstrate the occupation period of the work. On Monday and Friday afternoons the children of St.
Mary's and Brussels street kindergartens will give a practical demonstration at the Women's Council exhibit.

Through the kindness of Mr. T. J.
Phillips the association are enabled to sell candy. They will also have for sale the well known perfumes, soaps, etc., of Colgate's, and a few Perry pictures, inexpensive copies of famous pictures by old masters. The proceeds of these sales will go towards their work.

YORK LOAN DIVIDEND
IS COMING NEXT YEAR

TORONTO, Sept. 3.—Notice has been sent to York Loan shareholders of a dividend to be paid at last, which will amount to not less than forty cents on the dollar. It will be paid in three installments. The work of figuring out the standing of each shareholder is expected to take nine months and it will be that time before the dividend is paid. Shareholders are notified to have books in the hands of the liquidator within thirty days.

THE CEDAR.

For Friday and Saturday the series of four of the best pictures yet shown will be presented. A Father's Guilt is a particularly strong dramatic picture.
Maggie Dies is another picture which is sure to please all. The Half Moon Tavern and the Haunted Cheese complete a set of pictures which are according to none. Percy Sayce concludes his engagement with a fine march song entitled "Taps." Admission 5 cents.

HALIFAX, Sept. 3.—Well contested horses with several thrilling finishes furnished a good afternoon's sport for the crowd that witnessed the exhibition races today. Despite the threatening clouds, the rain held off and although the field in the thirty class was usually large the heats were got off so quickly that the last one was concluded at 4.15. Sleepy Jack added another first money to his credit by winning the second, third and fourth heats of the 2.30 trot after losing the first by a half length to the Springhill stables entry, Blomdon, who reduced his mark to 2.23.4.

in the three-year-old trot and won in straight heats. Allie W., from the

MARATHON FOOTBALL
TEAM HOLDS MEETING

A largely attended meeting of the Marathon club football team was held last evening in the Y. M. C. A.
Hall, Kingston street. At the meeting the plans for the coming season were talked over. The matter of applying for reinstatement of Dr. Malcolm, John Malcolm and Jerry Stubbs, now under suspension, occupied some attention and will be further considered at a meeting early next week.

A list of players will soon be presented and the team is expected to get down to an early practice. The matter of grounds did not receive any attention, but it will likely come before the team at the next meeting.

Over twenty-five men are desirous of making the team. The list line will likely contain Dr. Malcolm, Howard and Fleming, a late star from St.
Joseph's University. The excellent full back of the team, Hal. Ellis, is in Montreal, and Philip will likely return. The forward line will be strengthened by the addition of Dever and Doherty, two St. Peter's men of last year's team.

LOCAL SPORTS WATCHED
IN VAIN FOR LONGBOAT

Indian Ranner Does Not Touch St. John on Trip from Halifax

There was a disappointed crowd at the Union depot when the C. P. R. train from Halifax arrived with no Tom Longboat or Bobby Kerr on board.
The crowd was composed of those interested in athletics. The majority were there to see the famous Canadian winners, and there was great disappointment when it was learned that the Indian and the others who had stayed over in Halifax had returned home over the intercolonial.

Reached on the Every Day Club was at the train in the hope of including Longboat to remain in the city until Monday to take part in the Labor Day sports of the E. D. C. Mr. Belding telegraphed Longboat at Halifax concerning the matter, and was informed that the Indian was not informed that he was to be included in an Ontario meet on Labor Day. The answering telegram from Longboat said that he would see Mr. Belding at the railway station here, but no Tom Longboat appeared. R. J. Mahoney of the St. Peter's baseball team was also on hand at the station last evening to try and get the Onondaga to run an exhibition mile at the last game of the city baseball championship series.

FINE PROGRAMME
FOR THE CLOSING

Beautiful decorations, excellent music and pretty gowned ladies made the formal closing of the Westfield sporting season, held last evening in the hall at this place, a distinct success. The hall was handsomely decorated by the Gains Band boys with flags, bunting, etc., and was brightly illuminated.

R. E. Macaulay, the president of the association, presented the prizes and the winners responded in a fitting manner.

Charles McDonald, one of the owners of the Wabena, stated that he would put up a series of three races for next year's races. This will likely create a great deal of interest in yachting circles.

The association are endeavoring to put up a pavilion for next season.
This would cost between $20 and $30.
Mr. Hanson started a subscription list in the afternoon and procured $128.
This was increased to $240 last night.
The pavilion will be situated on the bank of the river just above Westfield wharf, on property owned by Mrs.
Lyons. The site is a very fine one and the pavilion will be suitable for passing and afternoon tea.

A vote of thanks was extended to the members of the club. The other ladies also enjoyed the dancing.

YACHTING

Walter S. Allison and George C. Hilyard were elected members of the R.
K. Y. C. at a meeting of the executive last evening.

There were many large parties at the Victoria roller rink last night to enjoy the excellent skating and listen to the music of the band. The rink is open every afternoon. Band again tomorrow night.

The Dunlop Tire Company's trophy for bicycle racing is to be raced for this afternoon. Arrangements for the race have not yet been completed, but the event will be either a twenty or twenty-five mile race, and the Marsh road will very likely be the finish of the course.

"You must keep your mouth shut when you're in the water," said the nurse, as she gave little Tommy a bath.
"If you don't, you'll swallow some of it."
"Well, what of it?" demanded Tommy. "There's plenty more in the pipes, ain't there?"

CAMPBELLTON JOINS THE
PROTECTIVE MOVEMENT

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Sept. 3.—An enthusiastic meeting was held in the club rooms last evening to hear Mr.
Clinch, of the Fish, Forest and Game Protective Association. Mr. Clinch set forth the object of the association clearly, quoting statistics to show what adequate protection to game, fish and animals had done for Maine and other countries. An association was formed here, an energetic list of officers was elected, and a large number of gentlemen signed the roll.
G. S. Dornier, Captain Glover, for which was ground at Oak Bay, got

REV. FATHER JERGE
HAS PASSED AWAY

A noted member of the Jesuit Order passed away in St. John at 11.10 o'clock last evening in the person of the Rev. Joseph Jerge, who reached here on July 1st, the thirty-first to preach the annual retreat to the Sisters of Charity in the well-known Cliff St. Academy. Father Jerge began the exercises of the retreat on the day of his arrival, and these he conducted with great energy and fervor up to the eighth of August.
On the morning of that day he closed the first retreat and in the evening he began the duties of a second retreat.
He complained shortly afterwards of feeling unwell, owing to what seemed to him unusually cool weather. This indisposition continued until on the twelfth of August, he was so prostrated that he was unable to return to the Bishop's Palace, where he had been staying, and it was found necessary to provide accommodations for him in the parlors of the Cliff Street Academy.
The good Sisters of this institution under the able guidance of Dr. Mc-Cormey, did all in their power to restore the zealous priest to health, but a severe attack of heart trouble brought about so serious a condition of affairs that it was deemed wise to make provision for any emergency, and accordingly, on Sunday, August the 23rd, at 5.30 p. m. the last sacraments were administered by Father Steinhilber, Rector of the Cathedral. Even then it was hoped that a turn for the better would ensue, but when Monday morning dawned it was evident that the heart had yielded either to the skill of the physician or to the unremitting care of the Sisters. On Monday an urgent telegram was sent to Boston College, of which community he was a member, serving as one of the assistants to the Church of the Immaculate Conception, situated next to the College. In response, the Rev. Thomas I. Gasson, S. J., President of Boston College, and Rector of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, left immediately for St. John, reaching here Tuesday morning. He has been constantly at the bedside of the sick man since his arrival. No effort was spared to bring back the heart to its normal condition.
The Bishop visited the dying priest several times daily. Father Gasson was with him day and night and Mother Thomas, assisted by Sister Joseph, Sister Columba, Sister Ludie and Sister Agatha attended to every want of the sufferer. But all efforts were unavailing, and last evening he passed away quietly and peacefully.

The dead priest was born of German parents on the border line between New York and Pennsylvania about sixty-seven years ago. He made his High School and collegiate studies in St. Mary's College, Montreal, where he distinguished himself by his intense application to his books and by his agency both in speaking and in writing. He entered the Jesuit Order at an early age, making his novitiate at Sault-au-Ruecel, near Montreal. After the preliminary studies in the Society of Jesus, he went to the well-known Theological Institute at Woodstock, Maryland, where he was raised to the dignity of the priesthood in the late seventies. His subsequent career was one of great intellectual activity and Jersey City, New York, Philadelphia, and Boston were the scenes of his labors. He was for several years Rector of the Jesuit House of Studies at Woodstock, Maryland, and for a long period Superior of St. Joseph's Church, Philadelphia. In 1902 he was appointed assistant to the Provincial Superior of the New York-Maryland provinces of the Jesuit Order. This position he held until last October, when he was sent to Boston to aid the Rev.
Thomas I. Gasson, S. J., in the important work of building a large institution of learning in the metropolis of New England. Father Jerge's death will be a great loss not only to his sociates in religion, but to many historians of devout persons along the Atlantic seaboard, who had for years enjoyed the blessings of his spiritual guidance.

The funeral will be held on Saturday at 11 o'clock in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Boston. The body will be taken to that city today, Rev. Father Gasson accompanying the remains.

PHILADELPHIA TEAM
WON FROM OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Sept. 4.—The Philadelphia cricketers won their match from Ottawa, finishing two days' play last evening. Ottawa went in in the morning for the second innings with 139 runs against them from the first innings. In their second innings Ottawa made 137, putting them only 11 ahead.
The feature of Ottawa's inning was Percelli, who was first at the wicket and carried his bat through the whole innings. He scored 75 and not out at the close.

Philadelphia went in and scored the twelve runs necessary to win with the loss of one wicket. They continued batting for exhibition play and scored 99 runs for four wickets.
