

NEW BRUNSWICK KENNEL CLUB SHOW PROVING BIG SUCCESS

Hundreds of Dogs on Exhibition Please Visitors — Prize List Shows Excellent Breeds — Award of Special Prizes Meets Popular Approval — The Winners.

Hundreds of dogs were on exhibition in St. Andrew's rink yesterday when the members of the New Brunswick Kennel Club opened their fifth annual bench show. Lovers and admirers of dogs were present in large numbers and showed their appreciation of the different entries.

While the spectators and some of the dogs appeared to enjoy the entertainment many of the exhibitors voiced their protests of being on show by howling, baying or barking and during the greater part of last evening the vocal efforts of the canines were greatly in evidence.

All the dogs showed class and many of the kennels were specially fitted up and decorated. Entries from different parts of the Maritime Provinces and several from the United States were in the stalls.

John E. DeLund, M. D. of Brooklyn, New York, was judge and his selection of winners seemed to meet with general approval.

The show was good and all dog fanciers should pay it a visit. The judging will start again this afternoon at two o'clock when cocker spaniels will be first on the stand.

BIG DYNAMITE CASE UP AGAIN

Objections to Conviction of Union Leaders at Indianapolis Made in Court of Appeals.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Objections to the conviction of thirty-three "dynamite plotters" at Indianapolis last December were laid before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals today in an appeal of the men to have the verdict set aside.

On behalf of Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' Union, Olaf A. Twietmoe, of San Francisco, and the other labor union officers, pleaded guilty of complicity in dynamite plots. Chester H. Krum, their chief counsel, argued before the court as follows: "That even if the defendants had been guilty of illegally transporting dynamite and nitro-glycerine on passenger trains, in violation of federal law, and even if they had blown up the work of contractors who refused to join the union, the statute of limitation has run against the offense before the men were tried."

"That the federal court at Indianapolis committed an error in allowing the reference to this tribunal at the instance of the Dominion, this conference expresses its firm belief that the decision should be considered as final and conclusive, especially in view of the far-reaching and disturbing impression created in the public mind by the Dominion's action in the powers of the legislatures in regard to the matter."

Future Meetings.
The concluding motion was one which declared that in the opinion of the delegates inter-provincial conferences should be called from time to time. Sir James Whitney and Sir Lomer Gouin to be conveners. Votes of thanks were passed to the chairman, Premier Murray, of Nova Scotia, and the Secretary, Mr. Charles Lacombe, of Quebec, and to Right Hon. R. Borden.

The delegates dined at Rideau Hall tonight as guests of their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught.

QUEST OF HONOR.
Toronto, Oct. 29.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has accepted the invitation of the Literary and Scientific Societies of University College to be its guest of honor at the opening meeting to be held in the latter part of November, or the beginning of December.

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make it thick, glossy, wavy, luxuriant and remove all dandruff.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine" hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

FOR SALE—General store business on Broadway. Best locality in town. Business has been established 34 years. (James F. McCuskey stand.) For particulars inquire McCuskey and Powers, Grand Falls, N. B.

a fair trial, but that they were punished three times for the same offence," said Attorney Zoline.

"First they were convicted of conspiracy with Orle E. McManigal, and the McNamara's to violate the federal law against carrying explosives on passenger trains; secondly, they were convicted of actually carrying explosives, and they were convicted in the consolidated offence."

All these convictions were based on the same evidence, the punishments were fixed accordingly. For instance, Frank M. Ryan was given 7 years on the contention that he committed three offences by one act."

Mr. Zoline quoted authorities to show that a conviction on one offence was a bar to conviction on another, when both offences were based on the same evidence.

Only two of the convicted men were in court. They were Mr. Ryan, who is still president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and Richard Houlihan, of Chicago. Ryan had served only a few weeks of his seven years sentence when he was released on bonds.

MANY ATTEND THE W.C.T.U. CONVENTION

Asbury Park, N. J., Oct. 29.—The fortieth annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union opened here today with meetings of the executive committee. Delegates from all parts of the United States and many from abroad will be in attendance until November 6. Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, of Portland, Me., the National President, will deliver the annual address on Friday. On Saturday night a rally will be held at which Miss Amy Swankie-Cameron, of London, leader in the young people's work of the world W. C. T. U., will speak.

When all the delegates have arrived it is expected the voting strength of the convention will be 500, while the attendance daily will run into the thousands. Many of the visitors came here from the convention of the world W. C. T. U., which was concluded in Brooklyn Monday.

THE C. P. R. IN AUSTRIA.
Vienna, Oct. 29.—The British embassy has renewed its request that the Austrian government should, pending the trial of Samuel Altman, the company's Vienna manager, permit the Canadian Pacific Railway to carry on its ordinary business, outside of the transportation of emigrants.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 29.—There was gloom in the Yale football camp this afternoon, when Hal Pumpelly, star drop kicker, twisted his injured ankle during the scrimmage and was rushed to the infirmary. The extent of the injury could not be learned tonight, but it is feared it may keep him out of the big game.

ALLAN LINE MOVEMENTS.

Allan Line steamer Hesperian, 10,000 tons, left St. John, N. B., for Quebec early Saturday morning, and will return Saturday night or Sunday morning.

STMR. OCAMO ARRIVES.

The Pickford and Black's West India line steamer Ocamo, Captain J. H. Denebola, arrived in port yesterday afternoon from Demerara, Trinidad, Barbados, St. Lucia, Antigua, St. Kitts, and St. John's. The steamer had a fine passage, coming north but met with some fog at the mouth of the Bay of Fundy, of which it was uneventful. Among the first class passengers were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Morton, of Demerara, are doing the round trip and will be in St. John's on the 31st. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Hughes, of Yarmouth, N. S., who went to Inletta on engineer work and is now returning home. The first cabin were two wealthy Chinese merchants, Sing Lee and So Lee on their way to their home at Hong Kong where the other two are bound. Among the second class passengers were a number of colored males coming to Canada for domestic work.

After discharging her St. John's freight the Ocamo will proceed to Halifax for which port she has a full freight including a lot of raw sugar. The following is a list of the Ocamo's first class passengers: Mr. and Mrs. R. Morton, G. S. Hughes, Mrs. G. L. Farrington and three children, M. L. Farrington, Sing Lee and So Lee.

Corporal G. Davies, of the English Garrison was also a passenger and returning to his home in the old line. J. W. Dagnell, the obliging purser of the Ocamo, shook hands with many friends at this port on the arrival of his ship. The captain and staff of officers are welcome here once more.

Immigration Agent James V. I. talum was very busy yesterday handling the newcomers to Canada. He is a legal case to enquire into. A Chinese man named Pong Ah Yee accused another Chinese named Kong Jing of stealing over $500 from him during the passage. Captain Coffin charged the case. The statement made by the accused and accused was so contradictory that the "court" decided to forward the money supposed to be stolen to Chinese Consul, Malcolm R. J. Reed, at Vancouver, British Columbia, who will be instructed to look into the matter and straighten it out if possible.
