THE HEROISM AND SACRIFICE OF THE BOYS IN TRENCHES

Captain T. F. Best Addressed Large Audience in West St. John City Hall Yesterday Afternoon—Allies Have Every Reason to Hope for Victory.

Captain T. F. Best was listened to by a large audience yesterday afternoon in the City Hall, West End as he told the stirring message of the heroism and sacrifice of our boys in the trenches.

He said that it was so often stated in the early days of the war that we were winning the war, but we had lost its charm as people awakened to the immensity of the struggle but it ought to hearten us to realize that now we really have a good chance of winning.

He said that he firmly believed Divine aid had been given to our men which enabled them to throw back the enemy when the odds were heavily against them, and said that not only did our own soldiers talk of seeing spirit troops, but German prisoners asked where we got the millions of men upon whom gun fire appeared to have no effect.

We have now every reason to hope for victory with the French army increased to four million men, the British growing daily more powerful, and American troops pouring into France.

Speaking of the unjust criticisms of the soldiers, and the stories circulated that drunkenness, immorality and vice were prevalent among the men in England and France, Captain Best said that such slanders have their origin in Berlin and were undoubtedly the product of German propaganda.

He spoke of the Y. M. C. A. dugout in the front line trenches where hot coffee is served free to the men, and of the quarters in the rear lines where the entertainments and social times are much appreciated by the weary and footsore men coming out of the trenches. In the Canadian army six theatrical parties from London are kept in constant circulation among the various camps.

He spoke of the spirit of sacrifice and comradeship among the men, and that when more of that spirit was shown at home the chances of the war would be much greater. The greed and selfishness of those who were making money out of the war was partly responsible for its prolongation. He finished with a strong appeal for closer co-operation and further sacrifice in backing up our boys and to give until it hurts to the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other organizations that were doing such a great work for the men overseas.

Mayor Hayes presided. At the close of Capt. Best's address, Miss Fenton sang a very pleasant solo.

Capt. Best spoke yesterday morning in the Carleton Methodist Church of "Comforts from the Trenches." He addressed a large gathering last evening at the Germain Street Baptist Church.

BISHOP RICHARDSON PREACHED IN TRINITY LAST EVENING

His Lordship Returned Yesterday from Tour in England and France—States that the Morale of the Men is Wonderful—Write Letters, Pray and Support the Efforts of the Soldiers, is the Message to the People.

"I am proud to have lived long enough in Canada to claim the name of Canadian, but never have I been so proud as I am since I have seen what the Canadians have done, and the record they have made, the morale of the men, the spirit in which they are fighting is magnificent, the work of the doctors, nurses and chaplains has been wonderful."

It was with words such as these that His Lordship Bishop Richardson held the deepest attention of a very large congregation in Trinity church last evening.

His Lordship returned yesterday from a tour in England and France, and in recognition of his safe arrival a special hymn of thanksgiving was sung at the service last evening.

Speaking without a text, Bishop Richardson said: "I will not preach a sermon but will give you some impressions of what I saw in the last few months. It was my privilege to preach from this pulpit last night before I sailed on my mission, and if I regarded it of paramount importance then, I have come back convinced that it was not only important but that the Church of England would have been recreant in its duty if some representative had not been sent, the only mistake made was that they waited three years to do it."

"In the short time at my disposal," the preacher went on to say, "I had the opportunity of seeing more than most men in two or three years. Every help was given to make my work effective. In camp and in the trenches, the work of the army from the inside out. The opportunity of talking before large gatherings of men was given me again and again. I have spoken to men under all sorts of conditions. Night after night in Y.M.C.A. hut meetings have been addressed and it was a new experience to speak in those circumstances. Picture a big building, at one end a canteen going in full swing with the accompanying rattle of dishes, in the centre are several hundred men playing checkers or games, and all around a halo of thick blue smoke. At the front of the room is a religious service being carried on."

"I was given the opportunity of visiting numerous hospitals and I was proud of the magnificent work done by the Canadian nurses and doctors. An English padre, who was twenty years in the Imperial service, and who spent twelve months at Saloniki, said that he had heard the question asked repeatedly by the soldiers, 'Am I going to be sent to a Canadian hospital?' On asking why that was so desired, he learned that the Canadians had the spirit of brotherhood which overcame the bonds of rank and of official station."

"In hospitals in England," His Lordship said, "he read over the coats the names of St. John and New Brunswick donors, and he had heard the matter through a great ward given by the people from this province. He had had the pleasure of meeting with Dr. Murray MacLaren and hearing from him the work of the medical corps. It was a record to fill us with pride and a great tribute was paid to their magnificent work."

"The revelation of the morale of our men is another source of pride," said the Bishop. "I spent two afternoons in one large hospital visiting the men and talking with them. I gave them every opportunity to grumble if they would, but once, all the time I was away did I hear a wounded Canadian soldier utter a single grumble."

"Calling on the commander of one army, I asked him what to say about the conduct of the Canadian troops. 'It is possible to get a division from the British army that will equal any Canadian corps, but there are no Canadian corps in the British army that are superior to those which we have set out to do.'"

"We owe it to them to throw our whole weight into the conduct of the war, to play the game. If we fail the men at the front God help us. No matter what it costs we must throw every ounce of strength behind those men. There is no danger from the civilian population must back them up."

Speaking of the Canadian padre, His Lordship said that reports had been circulated regarding the Canadian chaplains which were not true. Visiting the officers mess in many units he had heard the highest praise of the work of the padre and many an O.C. had stated that he could easily spare any man on his staff than the chaplain.

"I took to the men your love and sympathy and I bring the same message back to you," said Bishop Richardson, in closing. "They are grateful for the great work you are trying to do for them; they expect from you what you expect from them, never to lay down the sword, which we did not take up lightly, till we have achieved what we set out to do."

FOSTER GOV'T GAME PROTECTOR VIOLATES LAW

Former Game Warden William Folly Fined $75 and Costs for Having Deer Meat in His Possession Illegally—Was Recommended for Re-appointment.

Campbellton, Mar. 16.—Wm. Folly of the Tobique who was a Game Warden last year and is said to have been recommended for the same position this year by Messrs. LeBlanc and Currie, and was about ready to be sworn into office, was arrested on a charge of illegally having in his possession some deer meat. While in one of the town stores Chief of Police Mann spotted a sack in Folly's sled which was left standing in front of the store while he went into the shop. The Chief suspecting the sack or bag to contain deer meat examined it, and on finding his suspicions confirmed placed Folly under arrest, and notified the County Game Warden, John McKinnon, who came up from Bel River and took charge of the deer meat. Folly was allowed out on his own recognizance. At his trial before Police Magistrate Matheson the evidence showed that he was a game warden last year. He pleaded guilty to the charge of having deer meat in his possession illegally and was fined $75 and costs.

Albert, N. B., Feb. 27.—All energy and ambition seem to disappear when the nerves become exhausted. Hope and confidence fall and you feel blue and get to looking on the dark side of things.

Such was the experience of Mrs. Tingley, but she soon got to feeling things differently when Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was used to form new rich blood and build up the exhausted nerves.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N. B., writes: "Will you please allow me the privilege of giving my experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? I was for a long time in a very nervous, run-down condition, and much depressed in spirits. I suffered a great deal at times, and it was four or five years ago before I fully discovered what the real trouble was. The least noise would irritate me, and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I took various medicines recommended me, and consulted different doctors, but to no effect. A friend advised me to begin the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food at once. I complied with the request by procuring the medicine at the earliest convenience and can truly testify today to the great benefits I received therefrom. I was able to see a marked change in my condition before I had finished the use of two boxes. I kept up the treatment, however, until I had taken about a dozen boxes, and now feel safe in saying that I am cured of nervousness. I am entirely relieved of those terrible feelings I used to have, and cannot too highly speak of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which has done so much for me. I shall ever be ready to testify to the merits of this wonderful remedy, and gladly recommend it to all who suffer as I did, feeling sure it will give them quick and permanent relief."

This letter was endorsed by George C. Anderson, J.P.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, a full treatment of 6 boxes for $2.75, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates and Co., Limited, Toronto. Do not be talked into accepting a substitute.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

May be Overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—This Letter Proves It.

West Philadelphia, Pa.—"During the thirty years I have been married, I have been in bad health and had several attacks of nervous prostration until it seemed as if the organs in my whole body were worn out. I was finally persuaded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made a well woman of me. I can now do all my household and advise all ailing women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I will guarantee they will derive great benefit from it."—Mrs. FRANK FITZGERALD, 25 N. 41st Street, West Philadelphia, Pa.

There are thousands of women everywhere in Mrs. Fitzgerald's condition, suffering from nervousness, backache, headaches, and other symptoms of a functional derangement. It was a grateful spirit for health restored which led her to write this letter so that other women may benefit from her experience and find health as she has done.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If peevish, feverish and sick, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, your bile and fermenting food will be clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "Fruit Laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
