

METAGAMA HERE
WITH SOLDIERS

Big C. P. R. Ship Arrived Yesterday Morning With Large Passenger List—Two Deaths and a Birth on the Voyage.

The C.P.R.S. Metagama finished her nine-day journey from Liverpool at 11 a.m. yesterday, docking at berth 3 with a passenger list of 1611 souls, mails and general cargo.

The various committees for relief and welcome were on hand, as usual, besides the favorite Depot Battalion Band, and as soon as the gale plank was run up the work of debarkation began.

There were not many returning officers and soldiers on the Metagama, most of the passenger list being made up of civilians and soldiers' dependents.

The military party was in charge of Major William E. Davis, Winnipeg, and with him on the staff were Lieut. A. A. Galbraith, adjutant, Captain H. N. Scott, paymaster, Hon. Colonel S. D. Brown, chaplain and Hon. Captain C. A. Dawson, of the Y.M.C.A.

The medical staff included Major Colin A. McDermid, senior officer, Captains Moffat and Leard, and nursing sisters Gray, Adam, Pransky and Lattimer.

The New Brunswick list was rather light, 26 men debarking for this district. They were:

A. Sergt. Roy H. Ferris, 26th Batt., St. John.

Sergt. Edgar Johnson, 5th C. M. R., St. John.

Sergt. Chas. C. Robinson, original of the 12th Batt., St. John.

Sergt. Chas. Beesley, 140th Batt., St. John.

Sergt. Wm. G. Grimes, original 12th Batt., St. John.

Sergt. Frank Knight, 55th Batt., Milltown.

Sergt. David C. Leard, 115th Batt., St. John.

Sergt. J. H. McLatchey, 236th Batt., Campbellton.

Sergt. Fred H. Rollison, original 12th Batt., St. John.

Sergt. Thos. Roy, original 12th Batt., Milltown.

Sergt. Geo. Steeves, Forestry Corps, St. John.

Gunner H. Wandless, Field Artillery, Fredericton.

Pte. Thos. O. Williams, Royal Highlanders, St. John.

There were 26 men for Military District No. 6, including Lance Corporal Alfred Coleman, Military Medal, London; District No. 2 had 86 men, including Sergt. John Endicott, 2nd Pioneers, Military Medal, Toronto; Pte. Wm. G. Howes, 53rd Batt., Military Medal, Toronto.

The officer in charge of the party was Lieut. G. H. Bennett, of the Princess Pats. Other districts comprised No. 5, with 13 men; No. 4, with 36 men; No. 3, with 1 man; No. 2, with 20 men; No. 10, with 43 men; No. 11, with 55 men; No. 12, with 39 men, and No. 13, with 11 men.

Among the military passengers were Brigadier General C. A. Smart, C.M.G., of Westmount, who, for several years, has been in command of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and who was met on landing by Brigadier General Macdonell, O.C. of this district.

Other notable officers were Lieut. Colonel Percy Byng-Hall, of Victoria, a cousin of Sir Julian Byng, formerly commander-in-chief of the Canadian army, and also Major P. V. Torrance, D.S.O., of the 4th Battalion, Winnipeg.

There were 139 returning Canadians in the cabin class, 21 American in the same class, 253 among the cabin dependents, 45 civilian Canadians in the steerage, and 50 who were making their first voyage across.

The third class dependents numbered 415 women and children. In all, there were 319 children under the age of 14 years on board.

The New Brunswick passengers on board were:

Colin A. McKay, St. James street, St. John.

William Hargreave and wife, St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

St. John.

POLICE COURT
CASES YESTERDAY

Woman Fined $200 on a Liquor Charge—Seven Drunks Were Remanded—Chauffeur Charged With Speeding.

Seven drunks appeared in the police court yesterday morning and all were remanded. Whiskey being scarce, lemon extract and Jamaica ginger came into the beverage which they had become intoxicated on.

William Speight and Steve Prokunt were charged with assaulting George Rusanoff. The case was adjourned until later.

Jacques Salagan and Frank Bennett were charged by Inspector McAlnish with drinking in public. They pleaded guilty and were remanded.

Amrose Murphy appeared, charged by Inspector McAlnish with having liquor in his possession other than in his private dwelling. The prisoner told the court that he had procured the liquor from a friend paying $5 for it. The case was postponed until the afternoon, but due to the absence of witnesses, it was postponed again until today.

Miss Lena Arbo, and Mrs. Howe appeared on a charge of Inspector McAlnish with having liquor in their possession unlawfully last Saturday afternoon, when arrested in a candy shop in Charlotte street. The case was discontinued until the afternoon for want of witnesses. In the afternoon Miss Arbo was called to the stand, not having counsel and pleaded guilty of having a bottle of liquor in her possession last Saturday. Chief Inspector Rev. W. D. Wilson, was present to press the charge of the prosecution, and inquired of the defendant where she had procured the liquor. In reply she answered that a gentleman whom she knew not by name, had let her the liquor for her brother, who was ill. A time previous to this occasion the gentleman had come into the shop, and was speaking to her brother, who said he would like to procure some liquor as he was not feeling well at the time. Shortly afterwards the liquor was given to her brother by the gentleman. A short time ago, seeing the same gentleman in her shop she asked him if he could procure another bottle of liquor for her brother. He promised he would try, and Saturday afternoon came to the shop with the bottle for which she paid $4.50. Later Mrs. Howe came into the shop, and witness being frightened gave the bottle to her to take away, as she feared the proprietor of the shop would find the bottle and trouble might arise. She denied knowing the man, who supplied the liquor, only knowing him as Mac or Jack. Further, she stated that she did not remember telling anyone in the room where she had procured the liquor, at once rose to a witness stand.

In this case Chief Inspector Wilson asked again and again if she had not on last Saturday afternoon told someone in the room where she had procured liquor, and witness, as having supplied the liquor, at once rose to a witness stand.

Concluding his belief witness should be allowed to stand her case, and Mr. Wilson should not place obstacles in the way of a misleading character by putting answers in the mouth of the witness, in a round about fashion. Witness in conclusion swore she never had taken a bottle to a local theatre on any occasion.

In summing up the case his honor fined Miss Arbo $200, as evidence went to show she had liquor in her possession, having admitted it herself. As to Mrs. Howe, the other defendant in the case, evidence was not sufficient to prove she had liquor in her possession, and she was allowed out.

The case of Thomas W. Dickson, the chauffeur charged with speeding early last Tuesday morning when Lieut. Carr and Miss Helen Irvine were injured, was postponed until later.

Lieut. Carr is showing signs of improvement. Miss Irvine is also reported as being on the road to recovery, and no immediate danger is expected in either case. However, two counts beside the one for speeding on the morning of the accident, are entered against the defendant, which will be dealt with at a later date.

HEART PAINTED
Could Count Every Beat.

When the heart begins to palpitate, it will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over your whole system, accompanied by weak, fainting and dizzy spells.

When the heart gets into this condition, you become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social, business or household duties.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief to all sufferers from any heart weakness or nerve derangements.

Mrs. Walter Greaves, Apsley, Ont., writes: "I had been run down, and did not help me with their medicines. I could not sleep nights, my heart palpitated so, and I could count every beat."

I used to have such dizzy spells I would have to go to bed. I was not able to do any work or attend to my household duties. I took Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and told me what they had done for her. I took eight boxes of them and now I am able to help every day with the work I am so thankful to tell others what they have done for me, so that they may try this great and wonderful remedy. I hope this may prove good to some one who is suffering the way I did.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are sold in a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

OFFICERS FORM
A CLASS CLUB

Those Who Attended Royal School of Infantry in 1916 Will Get Together Again as a Social Body.

At the present time there is a movement being proposed among the returned officers and N. C. O.'s who attended the Royal School of Infantry at the armories in this city, under Captain A. D. Correll, in the spring of 1916, to form a class club, so as to enable old comrades in arms to keep in touch with one another socially.

Among the returned officers who have taken the course are: Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, C. R. T.; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, R. A. F.; Lieut. R. Dean, 26th Battalion; Lieut. L. McC. Ritchie, 26th Battalion; Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, No. 1 Depot; Lieut. C. F. West, R. A. F.; and Lieut. C. Cawley, R. A. F.

Lieutenant Cawley, it might be mentioned, was a prisoner of war in Germany for over a year, having been shot down over the German lines while supporting General Byng's advance on Cambrai.

Fully ninety-eight per cent. of the class which attended the infantry courses in the armories in the spring of 1916 have been active service at the front, some of them winning the supreme sacrifice as mentioned: Lieut. J. W. Holly of this city, 25th Battalion, killed in action while at the head of his company; Lieut. Maurice Mullaney of the 24th; Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

It is pointed out strongly that it is the desire of the provisional executive of the club to have all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

In order to expedite the formation of the club it is pointed out that such men effected in the ranks of the proposed organization, and Lieut. A. Read of the 26th, and Lieut. R. D. Gimour of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

The new club as proposed should also be a social body, and as such should be a place where all those who attended the school in the spring of 1916 to get in touch with one another, so as to form the club as suggested. Any of the boys interested, and coming under the category of officers or N. C. O.'s who took the infantry course can gain more information on the subject by applying to any of the following:

Lieut. Ronald Hamilton, chairman, St. John; Lieut. R. G. Bonnell, secretary, St. John; Lieut. C. Cawley, St. George; Lieut. W. H. S. Allington, Gagetown, and Lieut. G. H. S. Heveor, Robeson.

HAASE ATTACKS
THE GOVERNMENT

Says the Real Revolution for Germany is to Come—Its Form Depends Upon the Acts of the Present Government.

Weimer, Saturday, Feb. 15.—(By The Associated Press).—The German revolution just November was an artificial one, and the "real revolution" is still to come, Hugo Haase, independent Socialist leader, declared in the German National Assembly today.

The form of the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present government. Haase attacked the government and aroused outbreaks from other members by his vituperative arguments. Upwards were chiefly a repetition of old independent socialist charges against the government. Haase assailed the programme of Count Von Brockdorff, the foreign minister, and declared that it lacked the slightest element of socialism. He insisted, categorically, that the former Emperor had decided on war nearly a month before the outbreak.

Haase said that the revolution to come, he said, would depend upon the acts of the present